Dr Bill Dixon has taught contract law for over 15 years. Bill completed his doctorate on the topic 'An Examination of the Common Law Obligation of Good Faith in the Performance and Enforcement of Commercial Contracts in Australia'. He is a co-author of 14 books together with many other publications.

CONTRACT LAW FOR NON-LAWYERS
2 DAY SHORT COURSE

For those who come into contact with contracts or who are involved in contract making in the course of their work, a basic knowledge of contract law can help avoid legal problems down the track, or provide an early alert to seek specialised legal advice.

This two day workshop is designed to provide a foundation understanding of contract law for non-lawyers. Utilising a format that includes hands-on problem solving and ample opportunity for questions, this workshop explains difficult concepts in easy to understand terms.

Venue: QUT Executive Education Centre, B Block
2 George Street, Brisbane, QLD 4000
Garden Point Campus

Date: Tuesday 29th and Wednesday 30th October 2019
Time: 9.30am to 4.30pm
Cost: from $1800 (GST inclusive)
