

Master of Intellectual Property Law Scholarship for International Students

WORLD INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ORGANIZATION (WIPO)

QUEENSLAND UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY (QUT)

With the support of IP AUSTRALIA

MASTER OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW

The Master of Intellectual Property Law, commenced in February 2010 and is offered jointly by the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) and QUT's Faculty of Law in Brisbane, Australia.

This innovative course was developed in partnership with WIPO and is unique to the Asia-Pacific region.

The course is designed to meet the needs of current and aspiring intellectual property (IP) professionals and is open to graduates from law and non-law backgrounds. A copy of the brochure can be downloaded from <http://www.wipo.int/academy/en/>

The Masters course provides knowledge of IP law, policy and practice in an international context with an emphasis on the Asia-Pacific region.

MASTER OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW SCHOLARSHIP FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

In 2012, the Faculty of Law is offering two full fee waiver scholarships to international students from countries in the Asia-Pacific region (excluding Australia and New Zealand). The scholarships will be awarded based on academic merit in the applicant's undergraduate degree. Work experience in the intellectual property area, where applicable, also will be taken into consideration. Applicants must meet all other academic and English language requirements for the Master of Intellectual Property Law to be considered for this scholarship.

APPLICATION

Applicants should include with their application for entry to the course a written statement advising that they wish to be considered for the Faculty of Law fee waiver scholarship. Supporting statements should include details of the relevant work experience in the intellectual property area.

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION CLOSING DATES

Applications for entry to the course together with a supporting statement must be lodged by 1 November 2011 for 2012 course commencement.
