PREFACE

History

The Queensland University of Technology (QUT) was created in January 1989 by redesignation of the Queensland Institute of Technology (QIT). QIT had its origins in the Central Technical College, which was established in 1914 on what is now the University's Gardens Point campus. On its formation in 1965, QIT absorbed the professional courses offered by the Central Technical College and in its first year enrolled some 2000 part-time students.

In May 1990, QUT amalgamated with the Brisbane College of Advanced Education (BCAE), a large multi-campus institution specialising in the arts, business, education and the social sciences. BCAE was formed by an amalgamation that took place in January 1982, its precursors being the Kelvin Grove, Mount Gravatt and North Brisbane Colleges of Advanced Education and the Brisbane Kindergarten Teachers' College. These institutions were established, under other designations, in 1914, 1969, 1961 and 1907 respectively. The Mount Gravatt campus of BCAE was transferred to Griffith University in January 1990 prior to BCAE commencing amalgamation negotiations with QUT.

The institution resulting from the amalgamation of BCAE with QUT has retained the title Queensland University of Technology. It is a major university in the Australian context with a broad academic profile and an increasing involvement in research and postgraduate education. QUT has an enrolment approaching 26,000 students and expectations of sustained growth. It currently has campuses at Carseldine, Kedron Park, Kelvin Grove and Gardens Point, all in metropolitan Brisbane, and is sponsoring the development of a University College on the Sunshine Coast, north of Brisbane.

Mission

Within its mission statement QUT has identified three main goals:

- Teaching – to ensure that its graduates acquire knowledge, professional competence, a sense of community responsibility, and a capacity to continue their professional and personal development throughout their lives.
- Research – to advance and apply knowledge germane to the professions and to the communities with which it interacts, and relevant to the enhancement of economic, cultural and social conditions.
- Service – to contribute to the development of Australia's international responsibility and competitiveness; to enhance QUT's relationship with the professions; and to increase community awareness of issues through professional service and social commentary.

Council

The Council is the University's governing body, with responsibility for administering the University in accordance with the Queensland University of Technology Act 1988-1990. The Council consists of 22 members, of whom eight are nominees of the Minister for Education, one is a nominee of the Director-General of Education, two are nominees of the Council, two are elected non-academic staff members, three are elected academic staff members, two are elected student members and two are elected Convocation members. The Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor are members ex officio. The Chancellor is Chairperson of the Council and the Registrar is Secretary.

Convocation

Convocation represents the interests of QUT graduates through its representation on Council and its influence on University decision making, particularly in regard to teaching and applied research.

Convocation is chaired by a Warden and is served by a Standing Committee. The full Convocation meets annually and its functions are performed through the year by the Standing Committee.

Information

In addition to the Handbook, the University produces a range of publications to which the public has access. These include the Research and Consultancy Report, the Annual Report, the University's Manual of Policy and Procedures (MOPP) and the Admission Procedures booklet. These publications are available in the University's Libraries or may be obtained on request from the Registrar.

RESEARCH CENTRES

Australian Centre in Strategic Management

The Australian Centre in Strategic Management was established at QUT's Gardens Point campus by the Australian Research Council (ARC) and the Federal Department of Employment, Education and Training (DEET) in 1989 following a national competition. The Centre has links with the Australian Organisation for Quality (AOQ), Technical and Further Education (TAFE) and other universities and research centres around Australia and overseas well as with many enterprises in the private and public sectors. The Centre is a bridge between tertiary education and business enterprises, governments, unions and the wider community. It includes Australia's first Professor of Quality Management (in a Chair sponsored by the Queensland Government).

The Centre develops and disseminates to academics and practitioners, ideas, knowledge and experience emanating from research of international standards about the formulation and implementation of organisational strategies.

The Centre's policies are to:

- ☐ focus on organisational strategy, structure, design and culture, defined to include quality management, employment relations, organisational and technological change, and management development and education;
- ☐ focus on the context of small and medium-sized enterprises, as well as on large enterprises;
- ☐ maintain and further develop its role as a national and international centre of excellence in research and teaching in its selected areas of focus;
- ☐ attract researchers, academics, practitioners, consultants and resources to contribute in the Centre's areas of focus;
- ☐ bring the benefits of its research to the communities with which it interacts through publishing, designing learning opportunities, public speaking, networking and providing advisory and consulting services;
- ☐ contribute to education, for example, via its Open Seminar Series, as well as its PhD, Master of Quality, Graduate Diploma in Quality, and Management Certificate Programs and various short courses;
- ☐ be a catalyst to encourage research in the Centre's area of focus and thereby contribute to the continuing development of research and tertiary education in Australia and overseas;
- ☐ provide an environment in and around the Centre which fosters the development of staff and students' research skills and professional growth.

Research is a high priority for the Centre. It is a hub for a network of researchers including honours, masters, doctoral and postdoctoral students, visiting professors and teams of academics working with practitioners. Research is funded by a range of sources, including the federal and state governments, Australian and overseas competitive research grants, and contracts for applied research or consulting. The Centre's current projects include a three-year ARC research grant of over $120 000 to study the impact of strategy and structure on organisational performance in Australian industry, an international study of changing employment relations in Western European, North American and Asian countries, and a share of a one-year National Priority (Reserve) Fund grant of $250 000 to investigate quality, leadership and management development in a university context.

The Centre convenes conferences and seminars; conducts educational programs; produces books, articles, working papers, reprints and other publications; and welcomes short-term and medium-term research visitors, who, for example, are on secondment or study leave. The Centre's significant progress towards fulfilling its mission is illustrated in its various publications, which, including its Annual Report, are available on request.

Australian Key Centre in Land Information Studies

The Australian Key Centre in Land Information Studies (AKCLIS) was established in 1985 and aims to be a world-recognised Centre of Excellence dealing with geographic information (in its broadest sense) which is of academic and commercial significance to Australia.

Participating members are QUT, the Queensland Department of Lands, University of Queensland and James Cook University of North Queensland.

The Centre's mission is to support and foster research, formal education and training in the land information industry; support industry in developing new markets for Australia and abroad; transfer and diffuse technology throughout the industry; and seek funding for research and training programs.

During 1992, the Centre convened a national workshop attracting researchers and teachers from the private and public sectors and from teaching institutions across Australia to assist in identifying the most pressing requirements still outstanding in spatial science research, education and training, thus guiding its research program. A unique Directory of Research was published.

Since 1991 the Centre delivered, participated in, or coordinated numerous training programs totalling more than four work years for local, interstate and international trainees. Over 80 per cent of the training conducted by the Centre was undertaken for overseas governments or in overseas locations. Extensive consultancies and training have been undertaken in South-East Asia, the South-West Pacific and Africa.

In an innovative advance in teaching remote sensing, the Centre developed computer-aided learning packages for use in senior high schools, undergraduate training in universities and continuing professional education. The program has won recognition and awards from the Australian Institute of Cartographers and the Australian Society for Educational Technology and is being marketed and used internationally.

The Centre also plays a role overseas and was recognised as a Centre of Excellence in Land Information Studies by the prestigious Institute for Land Information based in Washington DC. The Centre provided training for the five-year Natural Resources Management and Development Program in the Philippines which was funded by AIDAB. In addition, training in remote sensing has been conducted in the Pacific. The Centre has a postgraduate exchange program with the University of Wuhan, China and a Memorandum of Understanding with the National Institute of Urban & Rural Planning in Vietnam.

More than 70 learned papers were presented in 1994 by AKCLIS researchers at conferences, seminars, workshops and in journals both in Australia and overseas.

Centre for Eye Research

The Centre for Eye Research was established in the School of Optometry in 1986 to coordinate the wide range of research activities in the visual and ophthalmic sciences. The Centre has a vigorous program of research investigating human vision and how the problems people have with vision may be resolved or alleviated.

In 1988 the Centre was given University Centre status and provided with support funding to pursue its mission of developing the research and postgraduate activities of the School of Optometry. In 1989, the Centre's first PhD students were enrolled.

The research activities of the Centre encompass the clinical, theoretical and applied aspects of the visual sciences. There is an emphasis on the functional and performance aspects of vision. The Centre also undertakes research for the ophthalmic and pharmaceutical industries towards the development of improved ophthalmic appliances and materials. In addition to investigating the causes of human vision problems, the Centre also undertakes research work for government, industry and business to resolve visual problems in the workplace, in transport and in industry.

The Centre for Eye Research serves as a focus for collaboration with groups internal and external to QUT. This collaboration with industry and with other research units is well established, and the Centre has attracted significant research grants from industry and government funding agencies.

The Centre's facilities and resources are unique in Queensland and provide a resource for the development of the visual and ophthalmic sciences and industries in the State.

Centre for Instrumental and Developmental Chemistry

The Centre for Instrumental and Developmental Chemistry was formed in January 1992. It emphasises high quality fundamental research and expert service of community needs through research, postgraduate education, development projects and consultancy.

Research

The Centre specialises in three main areas:

Analytical Science

Research in this area was initiated within the now superseded Centre for Analytical Science. Project areas currently being researched in the analytical science program include the development of new analytical instrumentation; use of chemometrics; elucidation of three-dimensional structures of complex molecules by NMR, X-ray diffraction and mass spectrometry; and use of vibrational spectroscopy for the characterisation of polymers, minerals, biological molecules and dyes; the development of new sample introduction methods in atomic spectroscopy.

Applied Biological Chemistry

The program encompasses a wide range of industrial sectors, and research makes extensive use of the instrumental infrastructure of the Centre. Current areas of activity include the synthesis of new molecules for use in industrial electronics and in the medical field; isolation and characterisation of new compounds of medicinal benefit from natural sources; development of new synthetic procedures, especially those based on the use of enzyme technology; and development of new procedures in enzyme fermentation, enzyme technology, and biochemical engineering and processing.

Material Science

This area of Centre activities has been well supported by industrial grants. Research is carried out in a number of important areas encompassing organic, inorganic and metallic materials. Significant project areas include synthetic polymers, particularly degradation studies and polymerisation kinetics; corrosion of metals and alloys in industrial environments; investigation of the electrodeposition of copper during the refining process; study of the structure and properties of clays; and preparation of advanced ceramics by the sol-gel process.

Consulting, Testing and Continuing Education

The previous Centre for Analytical Science was very active in consulting and testing. This activity earned valuable funds and forged strong links with the industrial community, leading to joint research projects. The new Centre for Instrumental and Developmental Chemistry will continue and expand this activity. Centre staff have established a reputation in continuing education by developing short courses in corrosion science and in vibrational spectroscopy. These courses have been given in every capital city of Australia and in South-east Asia. Future opportunities exist for the Centre to expand its continuing education activities.

Equipment

Activities revolve around sophisticated, high-cost instrumentation, including mass spectrometry, nuclear magnetic resonance spectrometry, fourier transform raman and infrared spectroscopy, inductively coupled plasma emission spectrometry, inductively coupled plasma mass spectrometry, and thermal analysis.

ACADEMIC AND STUDENT SERVICES

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit, a distinct section within the Division of Academic Affairs, performs a range of teaching, research and service functions in the University. A central activity is the recruitment and subsequent academic and counselling support of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students enrolled in degree programs at QUT. Students who are supported by the Unit experience a high rate of success in University programs and later employment.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are increasingly enrolling in the whole range of Faculties across QUT, including degree programs in Information Technology, Law, Science, Business, Nursing, Education, Arts, and Social Science. Throughout students' degree programs, Unit staff support students as they develop their study skills and professional discipline knowledge.

The Unit designs and teaches units in Aboriginal Studies and Aboriginal Education. In addition, staff from the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit contribute lectures and workshops to a wide range of degree programs, both at undergraduate and postgraduate level. Through these teaching activities students undertaking QUT courses have the opportunity to learn about cross-cultural issues in Australia.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit also engages in the professional development of QUT staff in respect to the development of appropriate skills and awareness for working in educational environments of cultural diversity. This function is also extended to the broader society, where the Unit has input in a range of government and community services. Conferences, seminars and workshops offered by the Unit bring benefit to the community.

Research into issues of contemporary concern to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people is a priority activity for the Unit. In this way, the Unit seeks to contribute to the achievement of the goals of Reconciliation and social justice policy.

The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Unit's central office is located at the Kelvin Grove campus, with service offices on Carseldine and Gardens Point campuses.

Coordinator: P. Duncan, DipTeach Syd.TC., BLitt ANU, MEd Canb.

Chaplaincy Services

The University caters for the emotional and spiritual needs of students and staff through the provision of Chaplaincy Services. The Ecumenical Chaplaincy is a joint venture of QUT and the major Christian denominations. There are presently two full-time chaplains working at QUT, operating on a schedule of visits to each campus.

Chaplaincy Centres and Chapel

The Chaplaincy Centres are ecumenical, and although the chaplains represent the major Christian denominations, they are available to people of other religions as well. If necessary, they are able to put people in touch with appropriate contacts from different denominations or religions.

The Chaplaincy Centres are a focus for Christians from a diversity of traditions and theological emphases. The purpose is to encourage community spirit and to be a lively influence within each campus. The chaplains aim to relate Christian faith to both personal commitment and to the corporate structures of church and society. Activities include counselling, social gatherings, discussion groups, eucharist, prayer and meditation groups. Chaplaincy can also serve as a bridge across the divisions that may surface in any human institution.

A chapel is available at the Gardens Point campus for quiet prayer, worship services and meetings. There is also a Muslim mosque in a room adjacent to the main chaplaincy rooms.

The Careers and Employment Section organises the Campus Interview Program for final year students, and helps students prepare for these interviews. It also conducts a survey of graduate destinations in the year following graduation.

The Counselling and Careers and Employment Services offer programs designed to aid the development of personal maturity and effective patterns of living, studying and working. These include workshops on communication, assertiveness, job-hunting skills and career planning; stress management groups; and reading efficiency and tertiary learning skills programs.

Complementing these is a range of general welfare and guidance services including financial aid, course and career information and an accommodation self-help service. Contact with community agencies offering services to students is also provided.

The Office of International Students

The Office of International Students is located in the Student Administration Department and is responsible for the administrative aspects of the International Students Program. The Office undertakes the following activities:

- ☐ answers all written enquiries and advises students regarding admission and course requirements for all courses including the Foundation and Bridging Programs
- ☐ processes all international student applications
- ☐ makes all offers and monitors course quotas
- ☐ handles all visa related matters
- ☐ collects tuition and Medibank payments and administers fee refund policy
- ☐ administers international student scholarships.

Application and Enrolment

All international students, except those studying Year 12 in Australia, should apply on a QUT 'F' form. Year 12 international students in Australia should apply through the Queensland Tertiary Admissions Centre (QTAC). Applications and general information about entry requirements and tuition fees for all courses may be obtained by writing to the Office of International Students.

All degree students must meet the minimum English language entry requirements of IELTS 6.5 or TOEFL 575 for entry to be confirmed. Some linguistically demanding courses (such as communication courses and postgraduate business courses) require IELTS 7 or TOEFL 600.

Following acceptance of an offer and payment of one semester's fees and one year's health cover charges, a student will be issued with an Acceptance Advice Form to apply for a visa to travel to Australia. Enrolment will be completed during Orientation.

Attendance

To meet student visa regulations, students must fulfil all course requirements. This includes full-time enrolment, defined as 75 per cent or more of a full-time credit load for the course.

Special approval must be obtained through the Office of International Students for part-time study.

Fees

Full tuition fees are charged for students enrolled in 75 per cent or more of a full-time credit load. Fees include student guild payments and all international student support services including airport greeting, accommodation service and English language support. International students are exempt from the Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS).

Tuition fees must be paid in advance by 26 June for Semester 2, and 10 January for Semester 1 in order for re-enrolment to be confirmed for the following semester. Failure to re-enrol or pay semester tuition fees will result in cancellation of the student visa. The Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) charge must be paid every 12 months before re-enrolment.

Students returning to full-time study after a period of absence or exclusion are required to pay tuition fees appropriate at the time of return.

Tuition fees are partially refunded to students who withdraw from their course up to the end of Week 6 of the semester. After that time, no refund is available. Any tuition fees refundable may only be transferred to another educational institution in Australia on production of a letter of offer from that institution or remitted offshore.

Fees for students on approved part-time study are levied pro rata according to the proportion of full-time credit points being studied.

In some limited cases, applicants on temporary resident visas may be allowed to enrol part-time. Fees are levied on a pro rata basis as for other part-time international students.

International Student Services

Living and studying in a new country requires significant adjustment in terms of language, culture and style of learning. In addition to the academic and professional challenges, students experience considerable personal and social development. Because international students do not have their usual sources of support and assistance (family, friends, community groups) available to them, QUT provides extensive support services.

International Students Services is located in the Department of Counselling and Health and is responsible for the following:

- ☐ conducting pre-departure briefings
- ☐ arranging on-arrival reception and accommodation
- ☐ conducting Orientation Programs
- ☐ offering direct counselling and welfare support
- ☐ developing student and community support networks
- ☐ arranging social and cultural activities
- ☐ offering English as a second language and learning skills support

- ☐ ensuring preparation for students returning home
- ☐ assisting graduate employment.

International Education Programs

The International Education Programs' major function is to help international students meet QUT entry requirements and access professional employment. Courses offered include:

- ☐ the Foundation Program
- ☐ English language programs (ELICOS) and Bridging Program
- ☐ Migrant professional programs.

QUT Foundation Program

The QUT Foundation Program prepares international students for almost all undergraduate courses at university level. It provides students who do not meet degree entry requirements with an opportunity to gain eligibility for entry into QUT faculties.

QUT Foundation Program students who attain the minimum results for entry to a degree, as specified by the relevant faculty, will be guaranteed a place in the QUT degree course for which they have applied.

QUT English Language Programs (ELICOS) and Bridging Program

QUT General English (GE) courses

General English courses are offered in six-week sessions. Courses cater for students at all levels of English language from elementary to intermediate and advanced.

QUT English for Academic Purposes (EAP) courses

The English for Academic Purposes course is offered in twelve week sessions and caters for students with an advanced level of English who are about to commence a degree program at university.

The EAP program aims to develop specific study and language skills in English needed to undertake academic study successfully in Australia. The course includes an IELTS preparation component.

QUT English for Business Purposes (EBP) courses

The English for Business Purposes course is offered in twelve week sessions and helps students develop their English in business communication. The course caters for a wide variety of students who need to be able to use English effectively for work or business studies.

QUT Bridging Program

The Bridging Program is designed for students who plan to study at QUT in an undergraduate or postgraduate program in the following year and who already meet minimum academic admission criteria for their course. The Program is available in Semester 2, commencing in July.

Students will be given an opportunity to:

- ☐ familiarise themselves with QUT and its facilities, such as libraries and computer systems
- ☐ develop an understanding of academic and language skills needed for tertiary study in Australia
- ☐ undertake IELTS preparation (if necessary)
- ☐ study a unit for a credit towards their degree
- ☐ make friendships and establish a network of contacts

QUT Foundation

The QUT Foundation strengthens relationships between the University and the wider community to extend the quality of QUT's research and education programs.

Through the support of corporations, government, industry, professional bodies and individual sponsors, the QUT Foundation offers a range of bursaries, scholarships and prizes to QUT students.

For further information contact (07) 864 2821.

The Alumni Relations Unit at QUT provides services and programs for graduates to enhance professional development, promote lifelong learning and create opportunities for all graduates to keep in touch with their alma mater and university friends.

Graduates are invited to participate in activities which add further value to the University's teaching programs. Guest lecture series, panel discussions and participation in the QUT Mentor Scheme are just some of the programs initiated to ensure QUT students are in touch with their future peers and employers in the real world.

Students can become student members of existing alumni constituent chapters. Existing chapters include: BEESA (Built Environment and Engineering and Surveying Alumni), Nursing, Home Economics, Optometry, MBA and Occupational Health and Safety.

For further information and application forms contact the Alumni Relations Unit on (07) 864 2147 or visit the office, Level 12, ITE Building, Gardens Point campus.

University Library

Students and staff of QUT have access to a wide range of information and audiovisual services and professional advice in these areas. Holdings of books, periodicals and other media have been developed in conjunction with teaching and research in the University and primarily reflect these activities. Materials are arranged on open access shelving. Access is provided via online catalogues available within the library buildings, via campus networks, and on a dial-in basis for persons with modems.

Locations

Libraries are located on all campuses. There is a separate Law Library at Gardens Point and a joint QUT/TAFE.TEQ library at the Sunshine Coast Centre.

Hours

Hours differ from campus to campus and sometimes at different service points within a library. Opening hours details are available through the Library catalogue and are advertised at each location and through a variety of publications.

Membership

All staff, full-time and part-time students are automatically members of the Library and may borrow materials on any campus. Identification cards are required whenever and wherever a user borrows.

The QUT Library has extensive reciprocal borrowing arrangements with Griffith University. As well, staff and students may also be eligible to register for reciprocal privileges from a number of other tertiary institutions. Details are available from Loans Desks.

Services

A variety of services is available on most of the campuses.

Information Services

Staff are on duty at the Information Desks to answer queries and assist users in finding and using collections and resources. If the materials required by users are not held on their home campus, they may request an intercampus loan. Similarly, users with special research needs may be eligible for an interlibrary loan if the items are not held anywhere within QUT. Special reciprocal loans may be requested if the items are held by Griffith University. Online searches of a large number of databases are also available.

Academic Liaison

Consultation with academic staff on the development of resources and services is achieved through a liaison service. A reference librarian works closely with each School in order to ensure that collections and programs reflect School priorities.

User Education

Professional staff teach students efficient information-seeking skills through a variety of formal and informal programs. Persons interested in these programs may wish to contact the User Education Coordinator (telephone (07) 864 1592). As well, teaching staff may contact their reference librarian and students should enquire at the Information Desk or ask their lecturers.

Other facilities

Facilities for study include study carrels, seminar rooms, lecture theatres and supporting audiovisual, computing and photocopying facilities. Appropriate consultancies are also available. Guides to collections and services may be found near the main entrance of each library location.

PRIZES AND AWARDS

The following list of prizes are subject to final approval by respective donors and may be changed or withdrawn without notice.

University Medals

The University may award medals known as Queensland University of Technology Medals to graduands of certain courses who have achieved an exceptionally high level of performance in their studies.

Eligibility to be considered for the award of a University Medal will be limited to:

- ☐ graduands of honours degrees where performance in the related bachelor degree is also taken into account
- ☐ graduands of degrees with honours
- ☐ graduands of bachelor degrees of at least three years' normal duration where no honours award is available.

In completing one of the above degrees, graduands must have been enrolled at QUT for at least two years of full-time study or equivalent.

For the award of a medal, a graduand should have reached a distinguished academic standard based on a grade point average in all units and in a thesis where such is required. The standard should be at a higher level than would normally be expected from an excellent graduand. The medal should be testimony that the recipient not only shows exceptional academic promise at the time of the award, but also exhibits a distinguished record of achievement throughout the whole of the degree.

Because the University Medal is awarded only for outstanding achievement, Academic Committee has indicated as a guide to faculties that the proportion of graduands who may receive medals in any year should normally be not more than one per 200 bachelor-level graduands (or part thereof) per faculty. It is possible that in some years faculties would choose not to recommend a medallist.

The award is a silver medallion, suitably embossed and inscribed, together with a certificate attesting the award. The medallion is five centimetres square with rounded corners. The QUT logo is embossed one side and the reverse carries an inscription citing the year of the award, the name of the awardee and the degree undertaken. Further details may be placed on the certificate.

Awards are made at April graduation ceremonies.

ART COLLECTION

Queensland University of Technology houses a major collection of almost 1200 Australian and international works of art, comprising paintings, sculptures, decorative arts and works on paper. These holdings represent one of the largest public art collections in Queensland.

Established in 1945, the collection embraces both historical and contemporary works, spanning a period of over 140 years. The greatest strengths lie in the extensive holdings of Queensland art from the 1940s onwards and the outstanding collection of contemporary Australian art post 1970, chiefly paintings, prints and ceramics. The small but significant group of works by Australian artists (Elioth Gruner, Frank Hinder, Margaret Preston, Grace Cossington Smith and so on) working predominantly in the first half of the twentieth century forms an interesting complement to contemporary holdings.

A number of important contemporary Australian artists are represented in the collection by major examples of their work. They include Ian Fairweather, Rosalie Gascoigne, Richard Larter, Keith Looby, John Olsen and Imants Tillers. The collection also contains substantial holdings by several eminent individual practitioners such as Alun Leach-Jones, Carl McConnell, Gwyn Hanssen Pigott and William Robinson.

The rapidly expanding collection of Australian prints comprises works by artists who have been actively involved in the graphic arts over the past two decades including George Baldessin, Hertha Kluge-Pott, Bea Maddock, Mike Parr, Sally Robinson and Fred Williams. These holdings have been recently consolidated through the acquisition of a large body of prints by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists, as well as by the purchase of works incorporating new technology such as faxes, photocopies and laser prints.

Contemporary Australian ceramics have been acquired consistently since the early 1970s. Highlights include major sculptural pieces by Olive Bishop, Margaret Dodd and Lorraine Jenyns, and important functional wares by Stephen Benwell, Greg Daly, Milton Moon, Jenny Orchard and Sandra Taylor. Recent acquisitions include works by a younger generation of ceramic artists such as Jo Crawford, Merran Esson, Debra Halpern, Jerry Wedd and Jo Williams.

Other new acquisitions reflect the high priority and commitment given by QUT to the work of local emerging practitioners, particularly those who have graduated from the University's Academy of the Arts and begun to establish themselves as professional artists. The recent purchase of representative works by Stephen Brash, Don Heron, Stephen Nothling and Anne Wallace exemplifies the significance and depth of this commitment.

In addition to its holdings of Australian art, QUT possesses a distinguished group of twentieth century American and European works by artists of the calibre of Georges Braque, Alexander Calder, Mary Cassatt, Henry Moore, William Scott, Victor Vasarely and Paul Wunderlich, as well as some outstanding nineteenth century Japanese woodblock prints.

The collection is displayed in various designated spaces at QUT's four Brisbane campuses. Policy and procedures relating to its development are determined by the Art Collection Committee, comprising senior representatives of the University and external members.

The collection is administered by the University Curator, Stephen Rainbird and Assistant Curator, Tracy Muche. For further information telephone (07) 864 3240.
