for use of image and personal information

It means a lot!

Thank you! Your contribution is making QUT a more dynamic place to study, work and play. We live in a diverse community where each individual brings fresh perspective and energy, all of which helps QUT personify its brand message as a university of the real world.

TERMS

Content created for QUT could include but is not limited to: images including photographs, videos, web assets, games, interactive content, web streams, writing, visual art, audio recordings and more. Your signed consent will constitute formal acceptance for QUT to use your content.

An image which is sufficiently clear to enable you to be identified as an individual is personal information. QUT has obligations under its information privacy policy mopp.qut.edu.au/F/F_06_02.jsp to ensure that personal information is used and disclosed only in ways which are consistent with Queensland privacy principles. In general, personal information is not disclosed or published unless the University has obtained the consent of the individual concerned.

QUT regularly reproduces content in its publications, digital screens/signage, promotional and marketing material and on its website. These images are used to promote the University or describe its activities. The images may be used for educational, publicity and/or advertising purposes in any media and for commercial or non-commercial purposes of the University.

QUT wishes to use and reproduce images of you and/or your content for these purposes and is seeking your consent to do so. If you agree to this, please read, complete and sign the consent below.

COPYRIGHT

Copyright in content submitted must be owned by the submitter, jointly owned by the submitter, or must be licensed in such a way that use of that content by QUT does not infringe copyright. If copyright is jointly owned you must have the consent of the other copyright owners to submit the content. QUT will not intervene in disputes between joint content owners, and excludes all liability arising out of or in connection with jointly owned copyright content.

Your content will be used by QUT in accordance with QUT's Copyright policy mopp.qut.edu.au/F/F_05_01.jsp. Your signed consent will grant the licence indicated in the Terms.
