

Bullying in schools: What can teachers do?

Find out how to avoid the common issues that can undermine the success of your school's prevention of bullying policy. Learn what you can do to minimise bullying behaviour in your classroom, school and community.

Bullying in schools is an endemic concern for the whole school community that has no 'quick fix' solution. Instead, there are evidence-based strategies that educators can use to help reduce the prevalence of bullying and to intervene when bullying behaviours occur.

This course will support educators in addressing all forms of bullying in their schools by creating, communicating, implementing and evaluating an effective bullying prevention policy.

 Duration: 13 hrs over 4weeks

 Certificate of Attainment
for 13 hours of CPD

 Cost: From $243.40

Evolve with QUTeX

This module is an opportunity to reflect on how your school currently manages bullying behaviour and to plan how you can contribute to greater positive outcomes. As a classroom teacher or school leader, you will compare and contrast your approach with the latest recommendations made by researchers who have studied the impact of prevailing attitudes, popular strategies and common challenges.

Core concepts

This online module develops your understanding of bullying behaviour and prepares you to:

- evaluate your school's bullying prevention policy and procedures
- plan how you will collaborate with others in your school community to address bullying
- implement prevention strategies and intervention procedures for reducing and responding to bullying behaviours

Who should participate?

This module is designed for teaching staff and educational leaders who want to improve their professional practice.

For Australian educators, this module aligns with the following Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APST):

- 1.1 Physical, social and intellectual development and characteristics of students
- 4.1 Support student participation
- 4.3 Manage challenging behaviour
- 4.4 Maintain student safety
- 6.2 Engage in professional learning and improve practice
- 6.3 Engage with colleagues and improve practice
- 7.2 Comply with legislative, administrative and organisational requirements
- 7.3 Engage with the parents/carers
- 7.4 Engage with professional teaching networks and broader communities

This online module is open for international enrolments.
