Course Structure

Students undertake 108 credit points of coursework units taken from Schedule 1 and complete a dissertation component.

Stage 1

108 credit points of coursework units taken from Schedule 1 in the entry for LW51 Master of Laws by Coursework. (Schedule 1 lists units available in 1994).

Stage 2

Dissertation component (approximately 70,000 words).

1. Studies During the Candidature

1.1 A candidate is required to complete successfully a course of study which results in a notable contribution to professional knowledge and practice. This contribution may be in the form of new knowledge and practice, or of significant and original adaptation, application and interpretation of existing knowledge and practice.

1.2 The degree comprises both coursework and a dissertation component which are of equal weight. Candidates will pursue an approved course of advanced study and research, comprising 108 credit points of coursework whether by approved projects or in courses offered by QUT (including courses selected from within the unit offerings for the LLM degree by coursework at a grade point average of at least 5.0). The candidate will also pursue a dissertation in accordance with Rules 3 and 6. One of the units studied for the coursework requirements must be Advanced Legal Research, or equivalents as approved by the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee.

1.3 Candidates must successfully complete all coursework requirements at the appropriate standard prior to commencing the dissertation. As far as possible, the topic of the dissertation must extend the coursework component. Subject to Rule 3, the Postgraduate Studies Committee will approve the course of study for the degree prior to commencement and will recommend for each candidate an Academic Supervisor who will normally be the Principal Supervisor for the candidate's dissertation.

1.4 The Research Management Committee on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law may approve a variation in a candidate's course of study and research.

2. Credit for Previous Studies/Transfer of Registration

The Research Management Committee on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Law may grant a candidate credit in the following circumstances:

2.1 Where a candidate has undertaken part of a proposed course of study as a registered student in another institution, and has undertaken coursework as part of a Master's degree, that candidate, through application in writing to Research Management Committee at the time of applying for registration, may have credit granted towards the candidate's course of study at QUT provided that the work for which a candidate seeks credit has been completed at a grade point average of at least 5.0 on a 7 point grading scale. The applicant must include details of the work already undertaken, the reasons for the transfer, and the expected date of completion.

2.2 A candidate who has completed at least 48 credit points towards a Master's degree at QUT or elsewhere at a grade point average of 5.0 may apply for transfer to a doctoral degree in the professional field of law. The candidate shall prepare for the Research Management Committee a detailed progress report, and the Committee shall seek the advice through the Dean of the candidate's Academic Supervisor. Where coursework has been undertaken as part of the Master's degree, a transfer normally may be approved only if the candidate has attained a grade point average of at least 5.0 on a 7 point scale.

2.3 Subject to these rules, a candidate who has completed a Master's degree in Law may be granted credit of up to 48 credit points for subjects passed for that degree at a grade point average of at least 5.0 on a 7 point scale.

2.4 Application for transfer normally should be submitted at least twenty-four months in advance of the probable date of completion of the dissertation component of the QUT Doctor of Juridical Science program.

2.5 The registration period for a doctoral degree in a professional field shall include such prior registration as may be approved by the Research Management Committee.

2.6 A candidate who is unable to complete the approved course of study may apply for transfer to an appropriate Master's degree.

3. Dissertation Requirements

3.1 When a candidate successfully completes the coursework component of the degree, the Academic Supervisor shall so certify to the Research Management Committee. The dissertation may not be commenced until the Committee receives such certification.

3.2 The dissertation must be presented in accordance with the requirements of the relevant rules of QUT.

3.3 Subject to the above and subject to the requirements of Rule 1, the candidate shall submit a detailed proposal for a topic for the dissertation to the Postgraduate Studies Committee at the time the candidate seeks approval for the candidate's course of studies.

3.4 The topic for the dissertation must involve both an appropriate theoretical perspective and a specific orientation to professional practice and application.

3.5 Normally two supervisors shall be appointed for each dissertation prepared by a candidate. One supervisor shall be the Principal Supervisor, with responsibility for supervising the preparation of the dissertation on a frequent basis. The Principal Supervisor shall be a member of the QUT Faculty of Law. Recommendations of suitable persons to be Principal Supervisor and Associate Supervisor for a dissertation shall be made by the Postgraduate Studies Committee to the Dean and approved by the Research Management Committee.

3.6 A candidate enrolled for the degree shall, at least once per semester during the period of candidature, consult with the Principal Supervisor, and where appropriate, any Associate Supervisor.

3.7 A candidate shall participate in such University scholarly activity, such as research seminars, as are deemed appropriate by the Principal Supervisor.

4. Progress Reports

4.1 A candidate shall prepare at the end of each semester during which the dissertation is being written a statement in the appropriate form of the work done towards the degree and submit it to the Principal Supervisor.

4.2 The Principal Supervisor shall within a fortnight of receiving the candidate's statement of work prepare a report to be given to the candidate for comment. The candidate shall sign the report in acknowledgment of this and return it to the supervisor forthwith together with any written comments the candidate may wish to make.

4.3 Both reports together with any accompanying comments by the candidate shall then be forwarded through the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee and the Dean to the Research Management Committee.

4.4 Where, in the opinion of the Research Management Committee, a candidate has not made satisfactory progress towards completing the requirements for the degree, the Research Management Committee on the advice of the Dean shall call upon the candidate to show cause why the enrolment of the candidate should not be terminated for lack of satisfactory progress.

4.5 Upon failure of the candidate to show cause the candidate's enrolment will be terminated.

5. Time Limits

5.1 Subject to Rules 5.2 and 5.3, a candidate may proceed either on a full-time or part-time basis.

5.2 Subject to 5.3, and except in special circumstances and with the approval of the Research Management Committee, all candidates shall complete a minimum of 36 months' registration if a full-time student, or 54 months if a part-time student, or such other period as may be approved by the Research Management Committee.

5.3 Where the candidate is a holder of a Masters Degree in Law, the period of registration shall be not less than 24 months in the case of a full-time student and not less than 36 months in the case of a part-time student.

5.4 Except in special circumstances and with the approval of the Research Management Committee:

- (i) A full-time candidate shall complete all the requirements for the degree not later than 54 months after first registration.
- (ii) A part-time candidate shall complete all the requirements for the degree not later than 60 months after first registration.

6. Examination of the Dissertation

6.1 The candidate shall present a dissertation of approximately 70,000 words which shall constitute a substantial and original contribution to knowledge and understanding in the area of the law the subject of the research in satisfaction of Rule 1.1. The dissertation must include a statement of objectives of the investigation and must acknowledge the sources from which the information is derived, the extent to which the work of others has been used, and that the work is original and otherwise complies with the University's requirements for presenting dissertations. Any substantial financial assistance received must also be acknowledged.

6.2 A candidate may not present as the dissertation any work which has been presented for another degree at QUT or any other institution.

6.3 Subject to agreement between supervisors and not later than three months before the proposed date for submission of the dissertation, the Principal Supervisor will recommend through the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee to the Research Management Committee the composition of a proposed Examination Committee, together with the title of the candidate's dissertation.

6.4 In order to determine whether a dissertation is acceptable for examination, a candidate may be examined orally by a Law Faculty panel of three persons appointed by the Dean. The Principal Supervisor shall be one of those three persons and shall chair the panel. All available members of the Examination Committee should attend the oral examination. The examination will be based on the work described in the dissertation and the field of study in which the investigation lies. The candidate will provide sufficient copies of the dissertation, bound in temporary cover, for the panel and the examiners.

6.5 The Faculty Panel will advise the Postgraduate Studies Committee and the Research Management Committee whether the dissertation in the format required by QUT must be presented to the Research Management Committee together with certification that the dissertation has been accepted by the Law Faculty. Receipt of the dissertation by the Research Management Committee constitutes submission of the candidate's dissertation for examination. The candidate's Principal Supervisor shall forward proposed arrangements for examination of the dissertation through the Law Faculty Postgraduate Studies Committee to the Research Management Committee for approval.

6.6 A dissertation shall normally be examined by an Examination Committee comprising one examiner from the QUT Faculty of Law, who shall chair the committee, and two external examiners. The external examiners must be independent of QUT. The Research Management Committee will provide the examiners with a copy of the dissertation and of all relevant requirements and information. Normally, examiners must read and report on the dissertation within two months of its receipt.

6.7 When the examiners are in agreement with respect to the dissertation, the chairperson shall transmit the result of the examination on the prescribed form to the chairperson of the Research Management Committee. The examiners' report shall recommend (i) that the dissertation be accepted, with or without minor modifications, or (ii) that the candidate be re-examined, or (iii) that the dissertation not be accepted and the candidature be terminated. When the recommendation is that the dissertation be accepted, the chairperson must return an Examiners' Report together with a certificate signed by each examiner recommending acceptance of the dissertation towards fulfilment of the conditions for the award of the Doctor of Juridical Science degree.

7. Award of Degree

7.1 In order to qualify for the award of the Doctor of Juridical Science degree, a candidate must submit to the Research Management Committee:

1.1 To be eligible for a place in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice applicants must hold, or be entitled to, an approved degree in law by the date the Course commences.

2. Approved Degree in Law

2.1 An approved degree in law is a degree in which an applicant passed all the units required for admission as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland, whether as part of the degree or through additional study.

2.2 If an applicant has a degree from a university not in Queensland, the applicant must submit a letter from the Secretary of the Queensland Solicitor's Board stating that the applicant has passed all the units required for admission as a solicitor, whether as part of the degree or through additional study.

3. Special Entry Where Applicants do not hold an Approved Degree

3.1 Applicants who are not eligible for normal entry may apply for special entry. An application for special entry must be accompanied by a written statement setting out reasons for applying for special entry.

3.2 Applications for special entry will not be considered unless there are places available in the course after places have been allocated to applicants who are eligible for normal entry.

4. Application

4.1 Applications will be considered only after the applicants:

- (a) attend an interview with the Director of Legal Practice (or nominee) or an approved interview session, and
- (b) comply with the University's requirements for admission to postgraduate courses.

5. Allocation of Places

5.1 If there are more applicants than quota places by the date applications for places in the Course are due (the due date), places will be allocated:

- (a) as to no less than 80 per cent of places, based on the relative preparedness of applicants for the course determined by reference to the units listed in 5.2 below completed before the course commences

- (b) as to up to 20 per cent of quota places, as determined by the Dean having regard to:
- (i) the faculty's equity policy
 - (ii) academic merit (usually first class or 2A honours at QUT or equivalent) or graduated or expect to graduate within the top 5% of the applicant's graduating class
 - (iii) whether completion of the course is required by the applicant's employer, or
 - (iv) extraordinary circumstances.

5.2 The units on which preparedness for the course is determined are those determined by the Academic Board. These courses for 1994 are those listed below.

Units studied over two semesters will receive preference over those studied over one semester. Units studied as discrete units will receive preference over those studies studied as a part of a unit incorporating other units. Where a number of applicants rank equally on the basis of units, their ranking inter se will be determined on their relative academic merit.

(There is a proposal to reduce the attendance requirements to four days per week in 1994.)
- (ii) A student who is absent from the course for more than an aggregate of seven days will be refused a Certificate of Satisfactory Completion of the course unless he or she shows cause to the Dean of the Faculty of Law why such a Certificate should be granted. ■ Bar Practice Course

Warden: J. Pastellas, BA LLB Qld, GradDipLegalPrac QIT, Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

The Bar Practice Course is offered by the Bar Practice section of the Legal Practice unit located at the Gardens Point campus. The course was first offered in 1983 and is a joint venture between the Bar Association of Queensland and QUT within the administrative structure of the Faculty of Law. It is subject to a Management Committee consisting of three members appointed by the Bar Association, three members appointed by the University, and a chief executive officer, designated Warden, who is a member of the academic staff of the Faculty of Law.

The objectives of the Bar Practice Course are:

- (i) to develop and enhance the practice skills of candidates for admission to the Bar of the Supreme Court of Queensland, and
- (ii) to concern itself with training and standards directed towards the achievement of the highest possible levels of competence and professional integrity in the members of the Bar of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

All sessions are practical and are substantially conducted by members of the judiciary, the magistracy and the senior Bar, and are directed towards practice and applications. Knowledge of substantive law units is presumed.

The course has a four-week full-time component, and an intensive advocacy weekend workshop, presented to students (readers) who have qualified in Law from universities or the Bar Board, and who wish to practise as Barristers.

The final two years of the four year full-time program or the equivalent units in other programs will be introduced in 1995.

Students who will complete the BA(GU)/LLB after 1994 will be required to undertake some elective units to substitute for units no longer available in the program.

■ Bachelor of Business – Accounting (USQ)/Bachelor of Laws (LX33)

Location: Gardens Point campus

Course Duration: 5 years full-time

Standard Credit Points/Full-Time Semester: 33.6 (Law component)

Professional Recognition

For information on the academic requirements of the Solicitor's or Barristers' Board of Queensland, refer to the section on professional recognition in the Bachelor of Laws course entry.

Transitional Arrangements

In 1994 the Law Faculty will offer a restructured Bachelor of Laws degree. The restructured degree will affect the Law component of the Bachelor of Business (Accounting) (USQ)/Bachelor of Laws degree offered by the University. The first two years of the four year full-time program or the equivalent units in other combined Law programs will be introduced in 1994. The final two years of the four year full-time program or the equivalent units in combined Law other programs will be introduced in 1995.

Students who commenced the old course structure (LX31) after 1 January 1993 automatically transfer to the new course structure (LX33) and must complete 336 credit points in the Law degree component of the course to be eligible to graduate.

Students deemed to have completed Stage 1 (of the 4 year full-time program) or the equivalent of the second year only of the old program (LX31) automatically transfer to the third year of the new program (LX33).

Students deemed to have commenced Stage 2 (of the 4 year full-time program) or the third year of the existing program (LX31) must complete the old course structure (LX31) to be eligible to graduate.

Students will be transferred using calculations that establish the 'stage' of a program which a student has completed. The Student Information System equates Stage 1 with the number of credit points equal to the total for those units (or equivalents) prescribed in the course structure for the Bachelor of Laws degree (LW31).

Before undertaking such units or courses, a student must obtain the approval of the Faculty of Law and the faculty or school responsible for the unit or course. Approval by the Faculty will require a student to demonstrate that the units selected form a coherent program.

■ Bachelor of Laws (LW33)

Location: Gardens Point campus

Course Duration: 4 years full-time, 6 years part-time

Total Credit Points: 384

Standard Credit Points/Full-Time Semester: 48

Course Coordinator: Professor Malcolm Cope

Transitional Arrangements

In 1994 the Law Faculty will offer a restructured Bachelor of Laws degree. The first two years of the four year full-time program or the equivalent units in other Law programs will be introduced in 1994. The final two years of the four year full-time program or the equivalent units in other Law programs will be introduced in 1995.

Students who commenced the old course structure (LW31) after 1 January 1993 will automatically transfer to the new course structure (LW33) and will be required to complete 384 credit points to be eligible to graduate.

Students deemed to have completed Stage 1 (of the four year full-time program) or the equivalent units in the part-time, external and graduate structures (LW31) automatically transfer the second year of the new program (LW33).

Students deemed to have commenced Stage 2 (of the four year full-time program) or the equivalent of second year of the old program remain in the old program (LW31) and will be required to complete 406 credit points to be eligible to graduate.

Students will be transferred using calculations which establish the 'stage' of a program that a student has completed. The Student Information System equates Stage 1 with a credit point load equal to units required to complete the first year of the four year full-time program.

All students enrolled in (LW31) and (LW33) in 1994 who are required to undertake elective units in 1994 must take only law elective units. Changes to the course structure include arrangements for expanding the range of elective units that students may undertake from other Faculties subject to the approval of Law Academic Board.

Research and Writing Project

The Research and Writing Project is a one-semester unit offered to a student whenever the Dean of the Faculty is satisfied that sufficient academic staff with the requisite expertise is available within the Faculty to supervise and examine the Project, and that, to undertake the Project, the student has the appropriate academic record and background, and there are sufficient Law Library facilities available. Preference will be given to any student who, at the end of the seventh semester of the full-time course or at the end of the tenth semester of the part-time course as the case may be, has obtained a grade point average in Law units equal to or greater than that required for the award of the LLB with Honours.

The Project is a paper, normally of 10,000-15,000 words. The paper must be submitted for examination not later than the last day of the teaching semester in which the Project is undertaken.

The Project is deemed to be a one-semester unit with two hours of formal classes a week.

Non-Law Elective Units (for students enrolled in LW33)

Students may undertake up to 96 credit points of elective units offered by other Faculties. Students enrolled in a graduate course structure are limited to 48 credit points of non-law elective units. Limitations are imposed on the number of introductory units which may be undertaken.

Before undertaking such units, a student must obtain the approval of the Faculty of Law and the Faculty or School responsible for the unit or course. Approval by the Faculty will require a student to demonstrate that the units selected form a coherent program.

Note: No student may undertake non-law elective units in 1994.

Professional Recognition for Admission to Practice

NEW COURSE – LW33

The new course structure (LW33) will also enable students to meet the academic requirements for admission to practice as a solicitor or barrister in Queensland. However the new admission requirements for admission as a Barrister of Solicitor in all of the Australian jurisdictions including Queensland are undergoing major review following National Mutual Recognition legislation.

Whilst the Law Faculty will seek to advise students as early as possible when Admission Rules are amended before the end of 1993, students should also contact the Queensland Solicitors/Barristers Boards for more information.

OLD COURSE – LW31

The old course structure (LW31) contains units which if undertaken by students meet the academic requirements for admission to practice as a Solicitor or Barrister in Queensland at the time of publication.

Students who wished to satisfy the academic requirements of the Solicitors' Board must have included the following units in their courses: LWB302 Family Law, LWB312 Land Contracts, and LWB405 Solicitors' Trust Accounts.

Students who wish to satisfy the academic requirements of the Barristers' Board must include the following units in their courses: LWB407 Conflicts of Law and LWB305 Jurisprudence.

Students also should refer to the Barristers' Admission Rules (Rule 16) regarding the law elective units which were acceptable for admission under the Admission Rules at the time of publication. LWB306 Local Government and Planning Law is not an acceptable unit under Rule 16.
