LWN100 Honours Dissertation

A coursework student who has obtained 96 credit points and who has a grade point average of 5 or better shall be eligible to enrol for an Honours Dissertation.

The Honours Dissertation shall be not less than 20,000 and not more than 30,000 words in length, and shall be prepared in accordance with the paper Presentation of Legal Theses by E.M. Campbell, copies of which are held in the Law Library. It shall include a title page, table of contents and bibliography.

Applications to undertake an Honours Dissertation must be made on the prescribed form available from the Faculty office, detailing topic, proposed supervisor, etc. The obligation for finding a supervisor lies with the student. A list of research interests of Faculty staff is released in October of each year. Applications close in mid-January. Students are advised of the success or otherwise of their applications no later than Week 4 of Semester 1. If the topic and supervisor are approved, the student shall pursue their research for the dissertation under the direction of the supervisor.

* Unit extends over two semesters.

+ Offered in 1993 subject to availability of staff and demand.

The student shall submit four clear typed copies of their dissertation to the Dean of the Faculty of Law. The dissertation must be submitted no later than two weeks into the end-of-semester examinations. On submission of the dissertation, the student shall furnish a signed statement that dissertation is their work alone, except where due acknowledgment is made in the text, and does not include material which has been previously submitted or accepted for a degree or diploma. The dissertation shall be referred to two examiners. Each examiner shall report as to whether, in their opinion, the dissertation is of sufficient merit and is one that is likely to be accepted for publication by a learned journal. Each examiner shall also recommend that the dissertation:

- (i) be accepted; or
- (ii) not be accepted; or
- (iii) be accepted subject to amendments to be made to the satisfaction of the supervisor, and, in any event, shall recommend that the dissertation be awarded a grade of fail or one of the pass grades. Following acceptance of the dissertation, two copies shall be bound in an approved form at the student's expense and one copy handed to the Law Librarian for deposit in the QUT Faculty of Law Library and the other copy submitted for inclusion in the QUT University Library. Any corrections resulting from the examiners' assessment shall be made prior to binding, and by retyping if they would otherwise be obtrusive.

■ Master of Laws by Research (LW52)

Location: Gardens Point campus

Course Duration: Minimum of 1 year full-time, 2 years part-time

Total Credit Points: 96

Course Coordinator: To be advised.

1. Rules for the Master of Laws Degree by Research and Thesis

1.1 The following rules apply to the degree of Master of Laws to be obtained by research and thesis awarded by the Queensland University of Technology, and are made with the authority of the Academic Committee of the Queensland University of Technology.

2. Master of Laws Degree by Research

2.1 The Master of Laws (LLM) degree by research and thesis may be awarded as:

2.1.1 Master of Laws, or

2.1.2 Master of Laws with First Class Honours, or

2.1.3 Master of Laws with Second Class Honours.

3. Candidature

3.1 Any of the following persons shall be eligible to apply for admission as a student for the degree:

3.1.1. Normal Entry: A person who has completed the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the Queensland University of Technology at a standard of at least Second Class Honours Division A, or its equivalent from another institution which, in the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty of Law, maintains standards comparable with those required for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the Queensland University of Technology; or

3.1.2 Other Entry: A person who has completed the requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the Queensland University of Technology at a standard of Second Class Honours Division B or a lesser standard, or its equivalent from another institution which, in the opinion of the Dean, maintains standards comparable with those required for the award of the degree of Bachelor of Laws of the Queensland University of Technology; or

3.1.3 Other Entry: A person admitted or entitled to be admitted to practice in the State of Queensland.

3.2 Candidates falling within sub-clauses 3.1.2 and 3.1.3 to be eligible for admission must satisfy the following:

3.2.1 Three years' professional experience in the field in which the proposed research work is to be undertaken; or

3.2.2 Satisfactory completion of an appropriate master's qualifying program stipulated by the Director of Research and Postgraduate Studies on the recommendation of the Postgraduate Studies Committee. Pending satisfactory completion of a qualifying program, provisional status may be granted to the candidate; or

3.2.3 The submission of professional publications or other appropriate evidence which satisfies the Director of Research and Postgraduate Studies on the recommendation of the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee that advanced knowledge and research ability has been acquired in the field of law in which the proposed research work is to be undertaken; and

3.2.4 The Dean of the Faculty of Law is satisfied of the ability of the candidate to complete the required research and thesis towards the degree.

4. Admission and Enrolment

4.1 A person applying for admission shall do so through the Registrar to the Dean.

4.2 Admission of a person as a candidate for the degree shall be at the discretion of the Dean on the recommendation of the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee.

4.3 A person applying for admission as a candidate for the degree shall apply in accordance with the requirements of the Registrar and shall pay all prescribed fees.

4.4 A person admitted as a candidate may enrol as either an internal full-time student or an internal part-time student.

5. Progress Reports

5.1 A candidate shall prepare annually a statement of the work done towards the degree and submit it to the appointed supervisor.

5.2 The supervisor shall prepare an annual report on the work done by the candidate and the report shall be given to the candidate for comment, and the candidate shall sign the report in acknowledgment of this and return it to the supervisor.

5.3 Both reports together with any accompanying comments by the candidate shall then be forwarded through the Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee and the Dean to the University's Research Management Committee.

5.4 Where, in the opinion of the Research Management Committee, a candidate has not made satisfactory progress towards completing the requirements for the degree, the Research Management Committee on the advice of the Dean shall call upon the candidate to show cause why the enrolment of the candidate should not be terminated for lack of satisfactory progress.

5.5 Upon failure of the candidate to show cause the candidate's enrolment will be terminated.

6. Thesis Requirements

6.1 The thesis submitted for the degree shall be not less than 50,000 words and not more than 60,000 words in length and shall constitute a substantial contribution to knowledge and understanding in the area of the law and subject of the research. It shall include a title page, table of contents and bibliography, and shall otherwise comply with the University's requirements for presenting theses.

6.2 The candidate shall submit a detailed proposal for a topic for the thesis to the Dean not later than the end of February or August, as the case may be, in the year in which the candidate is enrolled.

6.3 The Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee may, upon the recommendation of the Dean, vary the title of the thesis topic.

6.4 A candidate enrolled for the degree shall at least once per semester during the period of candidature, consult with the supervisor and, where appropriate, any co-supervisor, appointed by the Law Academic Board on the advice of the Dean.

6.5 A candidate shall submit four copies of the thesis in the form prescribed by the University for the submission of theses to the Dean not later than the end of November or May, as the case may be, in the year in which the candidate is required to complete the degree. On submission of the thesis, the candidate shall furnish a written statement to the effect that the thesis is that candidate's work alone, except where due acknowledgment is made in the text, and does not include material which has been previously submitted or accepted for a degree or diploma.

6.6 The Postgraduate Studies Committee shall refer the thesis to two examiners, at least one of whom must be external to the University. Each examiner shall report, normally within two months of receipt of the thesis, whether in the examiner's opinion, the thesis is of the standard required for the award of the degree. Each examiner shall also recommend that the thesis:

- (i) be accepted;
- (ii) not be accepted; or
- (iii) be accepted subject to amendments to be made to the satisfaction of the supervisor; and
- (iv) if accepted, whether the degree be awarded with First Class Honours, Second Class Honours or as a Pass degree.

6.7 The Faculty's Postgraduate Studies Committee shall forward the examiners' reports to the Law Academic Board together with its recommendation.

6.8 The Academic Board shall thereafter refer the examiners' reports to the Research Management Committee with its recommendations.

6.9 Following final acceptance of the thesis, two copies shall be bound in the prescribed form at the candidate's expense and one copy submitted to the Faculty of Law Library and the other copy submitted to the Queensland University of Technology Library and shall otherwise be treated in accordance with University policy. Any corrections resulting from the examiners' assessment shall be made prior to binding, and by re-typing if they would otherwise be obtrusive.

7. Credit for Research Work Done Elsewhere

7.1 The Dean, on the advice of the Director of Research and Postgraduate Studies, may grant credit toward the Master of Laws degree by Research and Thesis for work done at another institution of similar standing. Such credit shall not be granted unless the candidate provides to the Dean:

- (i) evidence that the candidate has cancelled or terminated enrolment at the other institution; and
- (ii) a written undertaking that the candidate will not seek credit in any form or manner for work done at the other institution or any other institutions except to complete the degree at the Queensland University of Technology.

8. Time for Completion Requirements

8.1 Except in special circumstances and with the approval of the Director of Research and Postgraduate Studies:

- (i) a full-time candidate shall complete all the requirements for the degree not earlier than the end of the second semester and not later than the end of the sixth semester of candidature;
- (ii) a part-time candidate shall complete all the requirements for the degree not earlier than the end of the fourth semester and not later than the end of the tenth semester of the candidature.

8.2 The Dean may, upon the application of the candidate and on the advice of the Director of Research and Postgraduate Studies, extend any time limited by the rules by such further period as may be consistent with general University rules.

9. Award of Degree

9.1 A candidate who has fulfilled the requirements of these rules and who has otherwise complied with the provisions of all statutes and other rules applicable may be admitted to the degree of Master of Laws at the grade which the Academic Committee on the recommendation of the Law Academic Board and Research Management Committee recommends for the award.

■ Master of Legal Practice (LP51)

Location: Gardens Point campus

Course Duration: Minimum of one semester and maximum of three semesters, following completion of the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice

Total Credit Points: 144 (including 96 credit points for the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice)

Standard Credit Points/Full-Time Semester: 48

Course Coordinator: Associate Professor J. de Groot

Course Structure

Students must complete a Research Dissertation in a minimum of one semester. Refer to information given under the heading Research Dissertation which follows.

It is expected that the Research Dissertation will relate to one of the core unit areas covered in the Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice and have an 'applied law' orientation.

Set out below are examples of topics which indicate the type of Research Dissertation expected:

- Law and practice difficulties in staged resort development.
- A comparative and effectiveness analysis of 'judgment by default' procedures and practices in the District, Supreme and Federal Courts.
- Jurisdictional issues and procedural difficulties in obtaining injunctive relief in the Supreme, Federal and Family Courts.

Full-Time Course Structure

Students undertaking the Master of Legal Practice in the full-time mode enrol in LPN301.

Part-Time Course Structure

Students undertaking the Master of Legal Practice in the part-time mode over two semesters enrol in LPN300.

Students undertaking the Master of Legal Practice in the part-time mode over three semesters enrol in LPN302 (equivalent to a 24 credit point semester unit) for one semester and enrol in LPN303 (12 credit point unit) and LPN304 (12 credit point unit) in the two subsequent semesters.

Students are advised to contact the course coordinator prior to final enrolment to ensure that they undertake the course in the manner most beneficial to successful study.

Research Dissertation (LPN300, LPN301, LPN302, LPN303 or LPN304)

The Research Dissertation (dissertation) shall be approximately 20,000 words in length, and shall be prepared in accordance with the paper Presentation of Legal Theses by E.M. Campbell, copies of which are held in the Law Library. It shall include a title page, table of contents and bibliography.

A student shall submit a topic for the dissertation to the Director of Legal Practice not later than the end of February in the year in which the student is enrolled for the Master of Legal Practice. At the same time, the student shall submit the name of a supervisor willing to supervise the dissertation. If the topic and the supervisor are considered by the Director of Legal Practice to be satisfactory, the Director shall recommend approval of the topic and the supervisor to the Postgraduate Studies Committee. On approval of the topic and the supervisor by the Postgraduate Studies Committee the student shall pursue their research for the dissertation under the direction of the supervisor.

The student shall submit four clear typed copies of their dissertation to the Director of Legal Practice not later than 18 months after the date on which the student enrolled for the Master of Legal Practice. On submission of the dissertation, the student shall furnish a statement signed by them that the dissertation is their work alone, except where due acknowledgment is made in the text, and does not include material which has been previously submitted or accepted for a degree or diploma. The Postgraduate Studies Committee shall refer the dissertation to two examiners recommended to it by the Director of Legal Practice. One of the examiners shall normally be a practitioner specialising or experienced in the area addressed in the dissertation and the other a Faculty member. Each examiner shall report as to whether in their opinion, the dissertation is of sufficient merit and is one that is likely to be accepted for publication by a learned journal. Each examiner shall also recommend that the thesis:

- (i) be accepted; or
- (ii) not be accepted; or
- (iii) be accepted subject to amendments to be made to the satisfaction of the supervisor.

Following acceptance of the dissertation, two copies shall be bound in an approved form at the student's expense and one copy submitted to the Faculty of Law Library and the other copy submitted for inclusion in the QUT University Library. Any corrections resulting from the examiners' assessment shall be made prior to binding, and by retyping if they would otherwise be obtrusive.

■ Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice (LP41)

Location: Gardens Point campus

Course Duration: This is a full-time course beginning in February each year and lasting one academic year, ie at least 32 teaching weeks, divided into two semesters which do not normally coincide with the University's normal semesters. There is a two-week break between the semesters and a one-week break in second semesters.

Total Credit Points: 96

Standard Credit Points/Full-Time Semester: 48

Course Coordinator: Mr A. Chay

Attendance

- (i) Subject to (ii) below, a student must, throughout the course, attend at the University, or wherever the course is being conducted at any given time, from 9am to 5pm, and at such other times as may be specified on each weekday which is not a public holiday in Queensland and which does not fall within a course recess, and must participate in all the appropriate course activities.
- (ii) A student who is absent from the course for, in the aggregate, more than seven days will be refused a Certificate of Satisfactory Completion of the course unless they show cause to the Dean of the Faculty of Law why such a Certificate should be granted. Such cause might be the circumstance that the student has completed in their own time to the satisfaction of the senior full-time instructor of the Legal Practice Course all work missed during the period/s of absence.

Assessment

Throughout the course there will be continuous assessment of the performance of each student. This will be based on attendance, conduct, application and, most of all, proficiency.

A student whose performance is deemed to be unsatisfactory as regards any area of practice or any part of such an area must repeat such part of the course as they are directed to repeat.

Other Requirements

The Dean of the Faculty of Law may require students to comply with such other regulations relating to the Legal Practice Course as may be notified from time to time.

Certificate of Satisfactory Completion, Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice

Subject to the rules set out above, each student who satisfactorily participates in and completes each part of the course and who complies with all the requirements relating to the course will receive a Certificate of Satisfactory Completion of the Legal Practice Course and will be awarded a Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice.

■ Bar Practice Course

The Bar Practice Course is offered by the Bar Practice section of the Legal Practice unit located at the Gardens Point campus. The course was first offered in 1983 and is a joint venture between the Bar Association of Queensland and the Queensland University of Technology within the administrative structure of the Faculty of Law. It is subject to a Management Committee consisting of three members appointed by the Bar Association, three members appointed by the University and a Chief Executive Officer, designated Warden, who is a member of the academic staff of the Faculty of Law.

The objectives of the Bar Practice Course are:

- (i) to develop and enhance the practice skills of candidates for admission to the Bar of the Supreme Court of Queensland;
- (ii) to act as a focus for the continuing education of Barristers in the Supreme Court of Queensland; and
- (iii) to concern itself with training and standards directed towards the achievement of the highest possible levels of competence and professional integrity in the members of the Bar of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

Lectures and practice presentations are substantially effected by members of the judiciary, the magistracy and the senior Bar, and are directed towards practice and applications. Knowledge of substantive law units is presumed.

The primary activity of the section is a 13-week course which includes an intensive advocacy weekend workshop, presented to students (readers) who have qualified in Law from universities or the Bar Board, and who wish to practise as Barristers.

Warden: J. Pastellas, BA LLB Qld, GDLegalPrac QIT, Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Queensland.

student who, at the end of the seventh semester of the full-time course, or at the end of the tenth semester of the part-time course, as the case may be, has obtained, in the Law units in which they have passed, an average mark equal to or greater than that required for the award of the LLB with Honours.

The Project is a paper, normally of 10,000-15,000 words. The paper must be submitted for examination not later than the last day of the teaching semester in which the Project is undertaken.

The Project is deemed to be a one-semester unit with three hours of formal classes a week.

*** SPECIAL LAW ELECTIVE UNIT

This one-semester Law unit is offered internally whenever, in the opinion of the Dean of the Faculty, sufficient academic staff with the requisite expertise in an appropriate unit other than one of those specified above are available in the Faculty, and a sufficient number of students is enrolled in the unit.

The Special Law Elective Units offered so far are:

Solicitors' Board Requirements

Students who wish to satisfy the academic requirements of the Solicitors' Board must include the following units in their courses: LWB302 Family Law, LWB312 Land Contracts and LWB405 Solicitors' Trust Accounts.

Barristers' Board Requirements

Students who wish to satisfy the academic requirements of the Barristers' Board must include the following units in their courses: LWB407 Conflict of Laws and LWB305 Jurisprudence.

Students also should refer to the Barristers' Admission Rules (Rule 16) regarding the Law Elective Units which are acceptable. Local Government Law is not an acceptable unit under Rule 16.

Part-Time Internal and External Course Structure

NOTE FOR EXTERNAL LLB COURSE

The non-Law units Introductory Accounting and Government may be taken by enrolling in equivalent units at a tertiary institution other than QUT. Equivalents of certain Law units may be undertaken at James Cook University. External students wishing to pursue this option must seek and be granted the approval of the Dean of the Faculty of Law.
