Session 5: Choose one workshop when you register:

Leadership Foundations workshop

Leadership is a term we hear often, and it can mean many different things across a range of contexts. This session will explore what it means to be a student leader at QUT, and how leadership is not simply a role, but a series of attitudes and practices that you carry across all areas of your life. Everyone can be a leader – come and find out how to lead in a way that is authentically your own. This interactive workshop will help you to explore your own approaches to leadership and help you to develop an understanding of your own leadership capacities.

True or False? Information in the age of Fake News

Understanding how to identify false or misleading information is an important skill, particularly in this age of Fake News and misinformation. In this workshop you will learn what to look out for when evaluating information, as well as understand how to verify facts and locate accurate and trustworthy information.
