

Enterprise Leadership: Leading Self and Others

Take charge of your personal and professional growth by discovering your leadership strengths and how to utilise them.

Successful leaders not only understand their strengths and weaknesses, but they also use this knowledge together with reflection, evaluation, and ultimately action to develop personally and professionally. As organisations become increasingly complex, teams diversify, and workplace practices change, leaders need to build resilience within themselves and others. Begin your self-awareness journey to develop your leadership skills and fulfil your human potential.

Evolve with QUTeX

Be ready for twenty-first-century workplace challenges by developing your personal and professional skills with QUTeX's Enterprise Leadership (ELP). Leading Self and Others will help you understand your strengths and weaknesses to develop and implement appropriate personal leadership development strategies. You will not only learn to build self-resilience but tools to encourage the leadership capacity of others to build a strong team foundation.

Core concepts

Through interactive learning Leading Self and Others, aids participants to:

- Evaluate their current leadership style;
- Develop their workplace leadership skills;
- Establish a personal leadership development plan to thrive within continual organisational change; and
- Grow the skills to build the leadership abilities and resilience of others in their organisation.

Who should participate?

Leading Self and Others maximises the leadership abilities of team leaders and program managers across all sectors. This course will show you practical, real-world leadership and management practices to maximise your capabilities while developing the leadership skills of others within your organisation.

Graduate Certificate in Business (Enterprise Leadership)

Did you know that you can transform your leadership development into a postgraduate qualification? This Enterprise Leadership module can be completed with an additional (optional) Credential unit. This provides you with the accreditation needed to go towards the completion of a Graduate Certificate in Business (Enterprise Leadership), an MBA, or an Executive MBA. To attain this qualification, you will need to complete two core Enterprise Leadership modules (Leading Self and Others and Actioning Strategic Innovation) plus any two electives from the available Enterprise Leadership modules.
