Plan for the workforce of the future and develop your skills to attract top talent.

It's no secret that exceptional workplace talent is the driving force behind many leading organisations. However, attracting this top talent has been radically changed by economic globalisation and technological shifts.

As more organisations prioritise attracting and retaining talented employees, it is essential to understand the new systems focusing on talent pool management.

Evolve with QUTeX

Technological advancements like remote working are dramatically changing the way HR professionals attract and retain high-quality candidates. Leaders recruiting for talent must understand strategies to recruit today for their future workforce. Managing Talent and Succession will guide you through the building blocks for an effective enterprise talent management strategy, including methods for attraction, recruitment, performance leadership, recognition and retention.

Who should participate?

Managing Talent and Succession grows both the talent management capabilities of HR professionals and the understanding of leaders needing to plan and lead the future workforce.

As part of QUT’s Enterprise Leadership series, this course aligns to the Leadership competencies for Queensland. Call our team on 07 3138 6573 to learn more, or download the competency map.

Graduate Certificate in Business (Enterprise Leadership)

Did you know that you can transform your leadership development into a postgraduate qualification?

This Enterprise Leadership module can be completed with an additional (optional) Credential unit. This provides you with the accreditation needed to go towards the completion of a Graduate Certificate in Business (Enterprise Leadership), an MBA, or an Executive MBA.

To attain this qualification, you will need to complete two core Enterprise Leadership modules (Leading Self and Others and Actioning Strategic Innovation) plus any two electives from the available Enterprise Leadership modules.
