MEDIA CONSENT – For the use of images in QUT Publications and Promotional Materials
Definition: A photographic image (including a video recording) which is sufficiently clear to enable you to be identified as an individual is personal information. QUT has obligations under its privacy policy (see https://www.qut.edu.au/additional/privacy) to ensure that personal information is used and disclosed only in ways which are consistent with privacy principles. In general, personal information is not disclosed or published except where an individual’s consent has been obtained. QUT regularly reproduces photographic or video images of individuals in its publications, promotional and marketing material and on its website. These images are used to promote the University or describe its activities. The images may be used for publicity and advertising purposes in any media and for commercial or non-commercial purposes of the University. The University would like to be able to use and reproduce one or more photographs or video images of you for these purposes and for the promotion of the Outstanding Alumni Awards and is seeking your consent to do so. If you agree to this, please read and complete the consent below.
	I agree to the University using, reproducing and disclosing photographic or video images of me as explained above.
	I agree that I will make no claim against QUT for any payment or fee for appearing in promotional material or advertisements and release QUT from any other claims arising out of the University’s use of the images of me.
	I understand this media consent only takes effect if my award nomination is successful
