QUT has discretion with any decisions made, in connection with this process. To the extent permitted by law, QUT has no liability to any Participant for decisions made in relation to the Scholarship.
Part 3 Value and Payment of Scholarship	1. Scholarships valued at up to AU$24,000.00 are paid at AU$8,000.00 per year for a standard full-time enrolment program (36 credit points or more) for a maximum of three (3) years. Payments are made bi-annually (AU$4,000.00 per teaching period) and are disbursed the week after the census date of each teaching period. 2. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, teaching period means the Semester 1 and/or 2 teaching periods, or in instances where a program of study and instruction for a unit or award course takes place in a teaching period not designated as a Semester 1 and/or 2 teaching period, the first enrolled teaching period designated in Grouped Period 1 (Semester 1 Cluster) and/or the first enrolled teaching period designated in Grouped Period 2 (Semester 2 Cluster). Payments will not be made to Participants during the Summer Program, or any teaching periods designated in Grouped Period 3 (Summer Cluster), unless otherwise specified in the Scholarship offer letter.

Parts	Terms and conditions
	3. Participants who complete their studies in accelerated mode or before the term of the Scholarship lapses will forfeit any remaining balance of the Scholarship. 4. Participants enrolled in a part-time enrolment program (24 credit points or less) will receive 50% of the payment to which would be received if undertaking a standard full-time enrolment program. 5. Payment is subject to the Conditions of Scholarship. If the Participant fails to adhere to the Conditions of Scholarship, payment may be suspended or terminated. 6. Participants will receive payment by electronic transfer to their nominated bank account after the census date of each teaching period. 7. Participants enrolled in Exchange, Cross Institutional, and/or Brisbane Universities Language Alliance (BULA) units will receive payment after the census date of the Exchange, Cross Institutional, and/or BULA units. 8. Whilst every care is taken to ensure payment is correct, Participants are required to monitor payments and notify the Scholarships team (scholarships@qut.edu.au) of any over or under payments. 9. Overpayments: a. If an overpayment occurs at any time and for any reason, QUT may issue the Participant with a written notice requiring repayment of the amount overpaid ('Overpayment Notice') b. The Participant must pay to QUT the amount of the overpayment specified in the Overpayment Notice within ten (10) business days of the date of the Overpayment Notice. c. QUT may, at its sole discretion, recover the overpayment specified in the Overpayment Notice from the Participant by offsetting that overpayment against any amount subsequently due to the Participant as part of their Scholarship. 10. Taxation: QUT does not withhold PAYG tax from coursework scholarship, bursary, or prize payments. It is the Participant's responsibility to check the tax implications for their scholarship, bursary, or prize and personal circumstances. Participants are encouraged to use the Australian Taxation Office's scholarship decision tool. For more information, visit www.ato.gov.au/individuals. 11. Centrelink: Centrelink may include this Scholarship entitlement in any means testing for applications made for Commonwealth assistance. Participants are encouraged to check the Centrelink website for information regarding exemptions.
Part 4 Term of Scholarship	1. The term of the Scholarship will be for three (3) years, based on a standard full-time enrolment program. 2. The term of the Scholarship will extend pro rata if the Participant enrolls in a part-time enrolment program. The maximum term permissible for the Scholarship for Participants undertaking part-time enrolment programs will be for six (6) years.
Part 5 Conditions of Scholarship	1. Participants must achieve a minimum course (cumulative) grade point average (GPA) of 4.00 in any given teaching period to maintain the Scholarship for the next teaching period.

Parts	Terms and conditions
	2. Progression: a. Participants whose course GPA drops below 4.00 will be issued a notification that they are in breach of the Conditions of Scholarship but will continue to receive payment for the currently enrolled teaching period. b. If the Participant's course GPA remains below 4.00 for the following teaching period, the Scholarship may be suspended until further notice. c. A third academic breach may result in the termination of the Scholarship. 3. Participants are required to participate in capability development and mentoring opportunities made available by QUT Entrepreneurship. 4. Participants must demonstrate commitment to achieving entrepreneurial ambitions by engaging in at least two meetings per teaching period with their designated QUT Entrepreneurship advisor as part of a Performance, Planning and Review process which includes supplying written progress reports. 5. Participants must be willing to work closely with a designated QUT Entrepreneurship advisor each teaching period to progress and review your action planning, which will include participating in relevant entrepreneurial capability and career development programs. 6. Participants must undertake the four-unit entrepreneurial minor (if not studying a double degree) and/or Work Integrated Learning (WIL) and experiential learning units (where credit may be earned for your entrepreneurial action) where these can be negotiated into the study plan. 7. Participants must remain admitted and enrolled in an eligible award course to receive payment. See Eligibility Requirements for the definition of eligible award course. 8. Participants are permitted to change their award course and continue to receive the Scholarship, unless otherwise specified in the Scholarship offer letter. 9. Deferment of the Scholarship offer is permitted up to a maximum of six (6) months. If a Participant defers their course for longer than six (6) months, the Participant will forfeit their offer but may re-apply for the Scholarship provided they still meet the eligibility criteria. 10. Payments are suspended whilst a Participant is undertaking an approved Leave of Absence. After completing their first teaching period, Participants are eligible to apply for up to one (1) year Leave of Absence from their award course without impacting their Scholarship entitlement. 11. Participants who withdraw from their award course or units prior to the completion of the teaching period (i.e., no grades are recorded) may be required to return monies paid to QUT. 12. Special circumstances will be taken into consideration to support individual variation to the Conditions of Scholarship. Supporting documentary evidence may be requested. Participants are encouraged to discuss their special circumstances with the Scholarships team (scholarships@qut.edu.au), Faculty, or QUT Student Services. 13. Recipients of the Scholarship may not be able to concurrently receive another merit, cooperative, or industry scholarship, but are eligible to Scholarships team (scholarships@qut.edu.au), Faculty, or QUT Student Services before withdrawing from their award course. - Failure to enrol into an eligible award course following the completion of the approved offer deferral period. - Commencing an award course at another higher education provider during the approved offer deferral period. - Failure to enrol into an eligible award course following the completion of the approved Leave of Absence period. - Engaging in behaviour that breaches the QUT Student Code of Conduct, where if proven would be regarded as student misconduct. The required standards of behaviour are contained within the Academic Integrity Policy, the QUT Code for Responsible Conduct of Research, and the Acceptable Use of Information and Communications Technology Resources Policy.

Part 9 Review and Appeals	Where the Participant intends to lodge an application for a review or appeal: Review process: - A Participant may request a review by submitting a written request via email to scholarships@qut.edu.au stating the grounds for review and include relevant supporting documentation. - Review requests must be lodged within ten (10) working days from date of notification of original outcome. - The Director (or delegate) of Student Administration will assess the original application, the information provided in the review request, and the relevant policy and legislative requirements. - The Director (or delegate) will determine to confirm the original decision, amend the decision or set aside the original decision and issue a new determination based on updated rationale. - Notification of the review will be provided via email within twenty (20) working days. Appeal process: Where the Participant intends to appeal the review decision: - Appeals related to scholarship, bursary, and prize matters are governed by these terms and conditions, the University Committee Governance Policy, and the Appeals Committee Charter. - Where the Participant is dissatisfied with the review outcome, they may submit an appeal to scholarships@qut.edu.au within five (5) working dates of receipt of the review outcome. The appeal must state the grounds for appeal and include any relevant supporting documentation. - The appeal will be reviewed by the University Appeals Committee for formal consideration. The decision of the University Appeals Committee is final. - Where the appeal is not resolved, the Participant may seek advice or lodge a complaint with the QUT Student Ombudsman. The Ombudsman is responsible for administering QUT's student related complaints policy. - The decision of the Appeal at 3 above is final. The QUT Student Ombudsman will assess if the review process complied with QUT's established policies and procedures.

Parts	Terms and conditions
	6. Where the Participant is still dissatisfied with the outcome, the Participant has the right to seek external review from an agency such as the National Student Ombudsman. The Participant is requested to advise the QUT Student Ombudsman of the application by email ombudsman@qut.edu.au .
Part 10 Privacy	1. By applying for the Scholarship, the Participant provides permission for their personal details to be shared with the Selection Panel. QUT collects the personal information on the Scholarship application form to assess applications and for other university purposes upon enrolment. The collection is authorised under the QUT Student Rules. Information explaining how QUT manages Participant's personal information and our practices for disclosure can be found at: www.governance.qut.edu.au/compliance/privacy/ 2. QUT is bound by the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) ('IPA'), and the QUT privacy policy is available at https://www.qut.edu.au/additional/privacy and http://www.mopp.qut.edu.au/F/F_06_02.jsp. 3. QUT will collect and use the Participant's personal information for the purposes of administering and carrying out the Scholarship and may share information with nominated third parties who require the information for the management of the Scholarship. This information will not be used for promotion and marketing purposes.
Part 11 Reserving the Right to Amend	Without limiting any part of the Scholarship terms and conditions, QUT may: 1. Amend or replace these terms and conditions, or any Scholarship rules or procedures, at any time and for any reason. 2. Extend, suspend, or terminate the Scholarship or Scholarship process at any time before the Scholarship is awarded. 3. Accept applications after the due date. 4. At any time prior to awarding the Scholarship, disqualify any Participant from participating or exclude their offer from further consideration. 5. Commence a new process for calling applications on a similar or different basis to that outlined in these terms and conditions. 6. Use non-QUT personnel in assessing applications.
