OVERVIEW

The School of Humanities and Human Services within QUT Carseldine is focused on multidisciplinary teaching and research and offers a range of subjects which focus on contemporary international, local and community issues.

- The Bachelor of Arts offers students the opportunity for professional majors in International and Global Studies, Ethics and Human Rights, Society and Change, Community Studies, and Australian Studies. Discipline majors in History, Geography, Languages, Social Sciences (Sociology and Political Studies) are also available together with a broad range of co-majors from other areas of the University. The first year of this program can also be undertaken at the Caboolture Campus.
- The Bachelor of Social Science offers majors in Applied Ethics, Geography and Environmental Studies, Human Services and Social Policy, International and Global Studies, Political Studies, and Sociology. The first year of this program can also be undertaken at the Caboolture Campus.
- The Bachelor of Social Science (Human Services) focuses on contemporary issues and offers a suite of skills units that will prepare students for work in aged services, disability services, and corrections; and for working with children and family, and with young people.
- Associated postgraduate research and coursework programs and honours programs are also available in the School.

Staff of QUT Carseldine are committed to maintaining strong links with industry and the professions served by the courses on offer. QUT Carseldine is also responsible for the coordination of academic and support activities at the Carseldine campus, and for the continued development of the campus and its relationships with community partners. Research and community service activities are regarded as key strategies for ensuring the on-going relevance of the academic programs at all levels and for maintaining the strong success record of graduates.

RESEARCH CENTRE

Centre for Social Change Research

The Centre's purpose is to develop a research environment that promotes understanding of the drivers of social change and the implications of change for individuals, families, communities and nations. The Centre's mission is:

To create an environment that promotes change and transformation, engagement and leadership through research that is careful, independent, critical and ethical, and that contributes to a sustainable world and better outcomes for people and communities.

The Centre facilitates research with a strong applied social research orientation, which allows the human, ethical and societal dimensions of technological, environmental, economic and political change to be assessed, and responses to these changes to be identified. This is achieved through careful, critical, independent and ethical research, which contributes to better outcomes for individuals and communities, and addresses issues of national and global significance.

Staff and students are offered:

- a centre of excellence in the 'craft of research', with a recognised reputation
- a distinctive, applied research culture, underpinned by a solid research base
- a focus on international and local issues related to the humanities, social sciences and human services
- an ethical engagement with a wide range of public policy and practices related to government, business and the community, including human services, health care, biotechnology and the professions
- strong collaborative partnerships with community, government, academic, and private organisations
- cutting edge critical public debate
- an open, people-centred and change-oriented approach
- a nurturing environment for the development of excellence in the next generation of researchers through expert mentoring and guidance by experienced researchers.

The Centre's strengths include:

- expertise in topical and important areas within the social research arena, including
 - Applied Ethics
 - Asia-Pacific Studies
 - Community Services
 - European Studies
 - Family and Social Policy
 - History
 - Gender Studies
 - Sustainability
 - Geography and Environmental Studies
 - Gerontology
 - Human rights
 - Politics
 - Sociology
 - Disability
 - Youth Services
 - Social Capital

- Triple Bottom Line
- Community Engagement
- experience in the use of diverse research approaches, including political, sociological, applied ethics, historical, and social science research approaches
- solid links with the community, industry, business and government organisations that enable the development of collaborative research alliances
- cross-disciplinary linkages at the local, national and international level
- a high publication rate.

The Centre aims to foster:

- a positive research culture that supports post-graduate candidates and staff researchers of an international standard
- solid links with the community, business, government and professional organisations that enable the development of collaborative research alliances and consultancies, working with people to deal with real issues in real time
- cross-disciplinary teams able to work together to offer alternative approaches to solve complex problems
- linkages with other faculties and departments throughout Australia and overseas, as well as within the Queensland University of Technology.

Course Outline

The Bachelor of Arts allows you to design your degree to suit your own interests and career aspirations. You will complete 24 units of study.

* You are REQUIRED to complete:

- One multidisciplinary major (7 units) from
 - International and Global Studies
 - Society and Change
 - Ethics and Human Rights
 - Community Studies
 - Australian Studies

* The remaining 17 units of study will consist of your choice from the following options:

- An additional multidisciplinary major (7 units)
- An Arts discipline major (6 units) from
 - Geography
 - History
 - Sociology
 - Political Studies
 - French
 - German
 - Indonesian
 - Japanese
 - Mandarin
- An Arts minor/s in any of the multidisciplinary or discipline majors (4 units)

- A co-major, an approved university minor, or individual electives in another QUT course (up to 8 units)

- A work-based Internship (2 units)

First Year at Caboolture

By including the Caboolture option on your QTAC application you have the opportunity to take the first year of the Bachelor of Arts at QUT's Caboolture campus. It is the same course as at Carseldine campus with the exception that the first year is tailored towards the availability of units offered at that campus. After completing your first year (or 96 credit points), you must then continue with the remainder of the course at the Carseldine campus.

It should be noted that credit/advanced standing will not be granted for Caboolture students - excluding START QUT studies. To receive credit, you must apply for entry to the program offered at Carseldine.

International and Global Studies Multidisciplinary Major

The International and Global Studies multidisciplinary major is an ideal choice if you wish to work in areas that demand and value knowledge of trends and outcomes in internationalisation, understanding of cultural diversity, knowledge of world regions, cultures and societies, and skills associated with global literacy. You may choose to concentrate on 'global perspectives' or 'international studies' (Asian studies, European studies or Pacific studies). You may combine this major with language study in Indonesian, French, Japanese, German or Mandarin.

Society and Change Multidisciplinary Major

The Society and Change major provides an multidisciplinary approach to understanding the dynamics of social change with particular emphasis on the environment, change and society, societies in transition, and the individual and society. You will acquire substantive knowledge on social and cultural aspects of change, and will be challenged to take a critical and analytical approach to your study. Many of the units provide case studies of social change, and as a graduate of this major you will be equipped with transferable analytical, research and interpersonal skills that are in demand in policy, research and community work.

Ethics and Human Rights Multidisciplinary Major

The Ethics and Human Rights multidisciplinary major provides you with the opportunity to develop as a socially responsible and responsive practitioner. Dramatic changes in the human condition, such as those already emerging from globalisation and biotechnology, will be a significant feature of life in the twenty-first century. This major will equip you with understandings, skills and strategies that will enable you to address change in ways that promote the well-being of individuals and communities. The major is organised around five themes: ethical understandings and theory, human rights, identity studies, ethics and technology and ethical practice.

Australian Studies Multidisciplinary Major

The Australian Studies multidisciplinary major examines past, present and future Australia from a variety of discipline and interdisciplinary approaches. Australian studies is a contested, endless conversation and the units reflect the many perspectives which researchers now adopt in trying to understand what 'Australia' is like as a society, a nation, a place and a home to indigenous and non-indigenous citizens. The major will equip you with knowledge about Australians and Australia and its role in the world. In addition, as a graduate you will have the confidence to engage in empirical and theoretical debates about what has happened, and should happen in Australia.

Community Studies Multidisciplinary Major

In the Community Studies multidisciplinary major the 'knowledge explosion' is addressed by an open-ended teaching and learning approach to equip you to better understand the communities to which you belong from past, present and future perspectives. As you get to know how communities are structured, you will consider what holds communities together and what undermines them, and consider how communities can be enhanced. The major encompasses the concept of community and a detailed investigation of community processes.

Minors

All of the multidisciplinary and discipline majors in the Bachelor of Arts can also be taken as four-unit minors. Note also that all QUT faculties offer agreed sets of units as 'university minors'.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, portfolios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Course Outline

The Bachelor of Human Services has a strong focus on contemporary social issues and produces competent human services workers who will care for and protect the rights of people, families and communities. You will complete 24 units of study.

You will specialise in at least one service area:

- aged services
- child and family services
- corrective services
- disability services
- services to young people

You will develop a range of professional skills such as:

- casework and case management
- social policy processes
- team practice and group processes
- community work
- crisis and conflict resolution
- social research methods
- Indigenous Australia
- child protection intervention

Professional Practice Placements

You will gain hands-on experience in this course through two professional practice placements.

In first semester of your second year you will explore the diversity of practice methods through the Introduction to Practice. You will undertake a total of 140 hours of volunteer placement/s in a human service agency.

Your theoretical and practical studies will culminate in a 36 credit point Advanced Professional Practice placement in second semester of your third year. This placement will generally reflect your specialised service context area. You will develop a learning plan in consultation with your agency supervisor and a university staff member. During this 400-hour supervised placement in a human services agency, you will further develop your assessment and intervention skills and your own practice framework. It may be possible to undertake this 12 week placement with an overseas agency.

These professional practice placements provide many valuable opportunities for networking within the human services industry.

Service Contexts

AGED SERVICES

Aged services units will focus your attention on the historical, social, and cultural scene within which services to older adults operate; aspects of intelligence, memory and learning in relation to ageing; and perspectives of work and retirement. You will investigate the home environment and living with change, relations with family members, and dealing with death and grief. You will explore issues around the health and wellness status of older adults and will investigate the needs of this group of people as they grow older in the Australian environment. Throughout this unit you will develop a critical awareness of practice issues and the impact of ethical considerations.

CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES

Child and family services units provide you with a firm grounding in theories, practices and processes essential for understanding and intervening in family life. You will be introduced to child and family welfare studies and will focus on approaches to supporting families and promoting change. You will also examine core processes and practice skills associated with interacting with children and parents, assessing family life and encouraging participation in decision making.

CORRECTIVE SERVICES

In corrective services units you will examine contemporary issues and practices in corrective services through empirical data and current corrective services practices. You will explore the function of prisons, prisoner rehabilitation, criminal behaviour trends, capital punishment, juvenile justice, the future of prisons, victims of crime, and restorative justice. You will develop critical-thinking and problem-solving skills as well as strategies to prepare you for employment within corrective services.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Disability services units provide you with a solid foundation for understanding and evaluating the theories, principles, practices and policies underpinning services used by people with disabilities. The aim is to link the social justice, empowerment and human rights issues explored in the more generic units within the degree program to the lives of people with disabilities. You will have the opportunity to explore and evaluate the range of service models relevant to the lifestyles of people with disabilities. The units focus on the quasi-legal and policy aspects of working in disability service organisations, and address some of the ethical dilemmas inherent in human service provision to people with a disability.

HUMANITIES AND HUMAN SERVICES

SERVICES TO YOUNG PEOPLE

These units help you understand and identify the various ways youth and adolescence are understood, constructed and portrayed in mainstream media, academic literature and human services. You will critically review the situation of a diverse range of young people and will investigate the knowledge, theory and skills base of a range of contemporary practice arenas, such as juvenile justice and adolescent child protection practice, youth homelessness, youth policy analysis and development.

Professional Membership

Graduates are entitled to apply for membership of the Australian Institute of Welfare and Community Workers.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Working with Children Check

As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), students must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Key Features

The Bachelor of Social Science offers a broad range of study options for students in the social sciences and includes opportunities for combinations of Primary majors in diverse areas. Students may undertake up to 12 (out of 24) units outside of the School of Humanities and Human Services.

Primary Majors are available in -

- * Applied Ethics
- * Geography and Environmental Studies
- * International and Global Studies
- * Political Studies
- * Sociology.

Secondary Majors are available in:

- * Asia-Pacific Studies
- * History
- * Human Services
- * Languages (French, German, Indonesian, Japanese, Mandarin)

Career Outcomes

The analytical and research skills acquired by social science graduates open up a range of career opportunities as social science professionals. They may be employed in government departments and agencies and community organisations as policy, information and research officers, policy analysts, or welfare and community workers. Career choices may be governed by the major study disciplines chosen.

Course Requirements

Students are required to complete the first year program as follows:

- * HHB116 Applied Skills and Scholarship
- * Two Foundation Units
- * Two to three Introductory Units
- * Two to three Elective Units

Students are REQUIRED to complete (over their entire course):

- * 6 Social Science Skills Units
- * 1 (7 unit) Primary Major

Students must ENSURE that:

- * They maintain a 50% enrolment in the units that are HHB-coded until they have completed eight units;
- * That a minimum of 12 of the total of 24 course units must be chosen from units that are HHB-coded.

Students who enter the course with advanced standing should discuss their enrolment with the Course Coordinator.

Part-Time Students - Year 1

During their first year, part-time students normally enrol in four units.

Course Outline

The Bachelor of Social Science allows you to develop a range of social science skills which will equip you to address social issues and problems.

You will complete 24 units of study in this course.

* You are REQUIRED to complete:

- One social science major (7 units) from
Sociology
Politics and History
Geography and Environment
Indigenous Perspectives and Issues
Human Services and Social Policy

and

- Social science skills units (6 units). The choice includes interpersonal communication social research conflict resolution
team practice survey methods
social policy processes
intervention methods

* The remaining 11 units of study will consist of your choices from the following options:

- An additional social science major (7 units)

- A social science minor (4 units) from
Gender and Sexuality
Peace and Conflict Resolution

- A foreign language (4-6 units) from French, German, Indonesian, Japanese, Mandarin

- A co-major, an approved university minor, or individual electives in another QUT course (up to 8 units)

- A work-based internship (2 units)

- An independent social science project (2 units)

Sociology Major

Sociology is an attempt to grapple with the issues and problems of a world experiencing change. You will study what makes us social beings and why both cooperation and conflict are recurring features of our social relationships. You will gain an understanding of the fundamental institutions of family, school, work and culture, and will be equipped to think intelligently and critically about them. You will acquire the skills of social analysis and policy development which are essential for a wide variety of professional employment.

Geography and Environment Major

Geography explains how and why natural environments, land use, settlement, economic activity, population and cultures vary from place to place, and how these elements interact to create distinctive and dynamic regional landscapes. The practical approach provides you with a sound basis, as a professional, for analysing human-environment linkages; population, social and cultural change; land use; settlement; and sustainable development.

Politics and History Major

The combination of politics and history provides a focus on the application of power in the contemporary world and also an understanding of how and why we have arrived at the social and political structures and processes that exist today. As a graduate with a politics and history background you will be equipped to enter occupations that require development and analysis of policy and administrative programs in both the public and private sectors.

Indigenous Perspectives and Issues Major

Indigenous perspectives and issues are central to the contemporary social sciences and to the creation of graduates who are skilled in the complexities of cross-cultural understanding and the acquisition of cross-cultural sensitivity. You will gain insights into Australian Indigenous perspectives and issues from the disciplines of humanities and human services, creative industries, education and justice studies. You will also develop skills associated with research ethics and protocols as they relate to Indigenous cultures and communities.

Human Services and Social Policy Major

Understanding our complex society and identifying emerging social issues and trends are key roles for human service and social policy practitioners. Community service agencies and for-profit industries seek out graduates with vocational skills that enable them to stay abreast of rapid social change and emerging trends. As a social science graduate you will be equipped to review, develop and administer social programs.

Gender and Sexuality Minor

Issues of difference and identity as they relate to the constitution of gender and sexuality are significant elements within social science investigations. This minor draws on relevant units from discipline areas such as humanities and human services, psychology, public health, justice studies and creative industries to enable you to analyse and challenge inherent presumptions about gendered/sexed bodies, as well as address the possibilities for alternative identity politics.

Peace and Conflict Resolution Minor

You will engage with important issues of contemporary global change and the way these may impact on diverse communities and individuals, conflicts that arise out of these situations, and approaches to resolving such conflicts. The units provide you with opportunities to pursue in-depth studies of human rights issues, identity issues and conflicts, and crisis intervention and resolution.

Minors

All the social science majors can also be taken as four-unit minors.

Note also that all QUT faculties offer agreed sets of units as 'university minors'.

First Year at Caboolture

By including the Caboolture option on your QTAC application, you have the opportunity to take the first year of the Bachelor of Social Science at QUT's Caboolture campus. After completing first year (or 96 credit points), you must then continue with the remainder of the course at the Carseldine campus.

It should be noted that credit/advanced standing will not be granted for Caboolture students - excluding START QUT studies. To receive credit, applicants must apply for the course offered at the Carseldine Campus.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Course Structure

This course consists of 16 units each from the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Human Services. The arts course structure allows you maximum flexibility to mix and match study units in a diverse range of themes including international, Australian, contemporary, historical, environmental, ethics, social change and language studies. In human services, you will acquire a range of professional skills and will specialise in a practice field from child and family services, aged services, corrective services, disability services, or services to young people.

Refer to the Bachelor of Arts (HH01) and Bachelor of Human Services (HH02) entries for further details.

Professional Practice Placements

As part of the Human Services component, you will have the opportunity to apply knowledge and skills through two supervised, professional practice placements in human service organisations.

You will first explore the diversity of practice methods through the Introduction to Practice. You will undertake a total of 140 hours of volunteer placement/s in a human service agency.

Your theoretical and practical studies will culminate in a 36 credit point Advanced Professional Practice placement in your final year. This placement will generally reflect your specialised service context area. You will develop a learning plan in consultation with your agency supervisor and a university staff member. During this 400-hour supervised placement in a human services agency, you will further develop your assessment and intervention skills and your own practice framework. It may be possible to undertake this 12 week placement with an overseas agency.

These professional practice placements provide many valuable opportunities for networking within the human services industry.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Working with Children Check

As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), students must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Overview

An Honours course provides you with not just specialisation-specific knowledge and skills, but also generic capacities that are highly valued in the labour market. An Honours year may also lead to enrolment in a higher research degree and students who do well are encouraged to apply for scholarships to undertake further study. As an Honours student you will undertake a program of focused study supervised by a member of academic staff.

Entry Requirements

Normally students will apply at the end of the final year of their pass degree. Except where otherwise specified, applicants MUST have:

* completed a bachelor degree in the relevant discipline area from QUT, or a similar degree from QUT or another university; and

* achieved a level of attainment considered by the Faculty Academic Board to be acceptable for the purposes of proceeding to an Honours degree (normally a course grade point average of 5 on a seven-point scale).

Alternatively, candidates may be accepted for admission by the Faculty Academic Board after advice from the course coordinator regarding evidence of other relevant qualifications and/or experience.

It is preferred that you contact a member of academic staff or the course coordinator to discuss supervision prior to submitting your application.

Course Structure

The course consists of three coursework units and the equivalent of five units of supervised independent study, resulting in a 15 000-18 000 word thesis. The requirements for graduating are satisfactory (or better) performance in all units. The final mark for the course is determined on the basis of marks assigned in the coursework units The Logic of Social Inquiry, Literature Review, and the advanced elective, plus the mark awarded to the thesis, with weighting being given according to the proportion of credit points within the total. The Honours thesis will be marked by two assessors, one of whom will normally be external to QUT.

Part-time Course Structure

Part-time students, and students wishing to enrol mid-year, should contact the course coordinator for advice on alternative sequences of study.

Language Students

Language students will, where appropriate, do extensive work in the Literature Review and Honours Thesis units in the target language. Where feasible the Honours thesis will be written in the target language.

Minimum requirement for entry:

- a grade point average of 5 over all undergraduate units. Normally students will have a QUT Social Science degree with a majority of units at second- and third-year level.

Alternatively, candidates may be accepted for admission by the Faculty Academic Board, after advice from the course coordinator regarding evidence of other relevant qualifications and/or experience.

It is preferred that you contact a member of academic staff or the course coordinator to discuss supervision prior to submitting your application.

Course Structure

Coursework provides for both disciplinary specialisation, and an interdisciplinary elective option selected in consultation with your supervisor and the course coordinator. The course consists of three coursework units and the equivalent of five units of supervised independent study, resulting in a 15 000-18 000 word thesis. The requirements for graduating are satisfactory (or better) performance in all units. The final mark for the course is determined on the basis of marks assigned in the coursework units The Logic of Social Inquiry, Literature Review, and the advanced elective, plus the mark awarded to the thesis, with weighting being given according to the proportion of credit points within the total. The Honours thesis will be marked by two assessors, one of whom will normally be external to QUT.

Note: Part-time Students

Part-time students, and students wishing to enrol mid-year, should contact the course coordinator for advice on alternative sequences of study.

Overview

If you are an employee in the community services industry, this course will help you respond to industry restructuring. It will give you a comprehensive understanding of new styles of service delivery, and upgrade your professional and management skills, preparing you for leadership of human services agencies. If you hold an undergraduate degree in psychology, education, nursing or related professions and are seeking employment in human services, this course will provide you with core knowledge and skills in a range of practice fields.

Entry requirements

Applicants must have:

- a three year undergraduate degree in human services or social work; or

- a three-year non-human services undergraduate degree with at least one year of demonstrated employment experience in the community service industry or related occupations such as teaching, nursing or allied health, community development, psychology or law.

Alternatively, students with at least five years of experience in the human services industry who can establish to the satisfaction of the course coordinator that they have accumulated the requisite academic capacity to function at a postgraduate level will be accepted into the Graduate Certificate. Capacity may be established by presenting reports or a submission prepared.

Overview

The Master of Arts by Research is offered through the Centre for Social Change Research. Research topics are drawn from the various disciplines represented in the School of Humanities and Human Services. Study areas available include:

- * Aged Services
- * Applied Ethics
- * Asia-Pacific Studies
- * Child and Family Services
- * Disability Services
- * European Studies
- * Geography and Environmental Studies
- * History
- * Human Services
- * International and Global Studies
- * Languages (French, German, Indonesian, Japanese, Mandarin)
- * Political Studies
- * Services to Young People
- * Sociology.

Entry requirements

Applicants must have a three-year bachelor degree or equivalent to enter the coursework plus research program.

To enter the research only program, applicants must have completed a three-year bachelor degree plus honours. Candidates with other four-year qualifications such as a three-year bachelor degree plus graduate diploma or a four-year double degree may also, after consultation with their supervisor and the course coordinator, enter the 96 credit point course. Such applicants whose previous study has included limited relevant research experience may be advised to enrol in a research methods unit as part of their course. They may also elect to take the 144 credit point program.

Course Structure

For those with a three-year degree, the Master of Arts (Research) normally comprises 48 credit points of coursework and a 96 credit point research project. For those with a four-year degree it normally comprises a 96 credit point research project. However, with the approval of the postgraduate studies coordinator it is possible to enrol in a 12 credit point coursework plus 84 credit point research project; or a 24 credit point coursework plus 72 credit point research project.

Research Component

The research component is usually presented as a thesis (30 000-50 000 words).

Overview

The Doctor of Social Science will play a vital role in ensuring that humanities, social science and human service professionals will be able to continue their professional and personal development. The objective of the programme is advanced, critical and systematic reflection at doctoral level on professional practice in any or across a number of the humanities, social science and human service disciplines

Entry Requirements

- . a four year degree or its equivalent with First Class Honours or Honours IIA; or
- . a masters degree in a field relevant to the professional doctorate; AND
- . two years of practice at an advanced level in a position of responsibility in a relevant professional setting.

Entry with Advanced Standing: Candidates with a masters degree will be eligible for credit of up to 96 credit points. Other previous study or uncredentialed learning may also gain credit.

Course Structure

The course is divided into coursework and three theses. All three theses have conference presentation/communication of research finding units attached to them. Students will first complete their coursework and their first project, as well as HHR510 before they will be permitted to work on their second project. Similarly students must complete the second project as well as HHR520 before they are permitted to begin work on their third project. The course therefore has a three-part format and students are required to pass three stages in turn to guarantee progression.

Overview

In this double degree, you will complete an Australian Psychology Accreditation Council (APAC) accredited program of study in psychology and a Bachelor of Arts with a multidisciplinary major in international and global studies, society and change, ethics and human rights, community studies, or Australian studies.

Why choose this course?

The Bachelor of Behavioural Science (Psychology) provides a thorough grounding in the scientific bases of psychology, and deals with the research and statistical methods used in the discipline. You will complete core subjects in development, personality, social psychology, psychological disorders, learning, memory and perception. In your second and third years you are able to explore subjects in contemporary areas such as counselling and family therapy, forensic psychology, addictive behaviours and traffic psychology.

From the Bachelor of Arts you will also develop an understanding of society and the impacts of global, social, environmental and technological change. The high-level communication and social research skills you will acquire are valuable in a wide range of professions. You will gain analytical, research, report writing, communication and interpersonal skills which can be used across many disciplines.

After successful completion of the degree, you may pursue a career in a range of vocations where your skills are valued, undertake further study to become a registered psychologist, or seek postgraduate studies in psychology or other disciplines.

Career Options

The analytical, research and interpersonal skills acquired through the psychology units have a high degree of application in areas such as education, business, built environment, justice studies, health and sport. Some graduates choose careers in related professional and semi-professional areas such as counselling or audiology, which may typically require further specialist study. Other possible career paths include international affairs, government, community development and public policy. You may wish to pursue careers in professional areas of psychology, which will require you to undertake further study and be registered with the State Registration Board.

Recommended Study

Maths A, B or C is recommended.

Psychology Electives

Electives include psychology and gender, human sexuality, psychopharmacology of addictive behaviour, substance abuse, forensic psychology and the law, health psychology, social psychology, occupational psychology, counselling, advanced statistical analysis, and road safety and traffic psychology.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Other Majors

See also the separate entry for the following majors in this course: Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Business (Advertising, Electronic Business, Human Resource Management, International Business, Management, or Public Relations).

Career Outcomes

- Humanities graduates find employment in areas such as government, diplomacy, higher education and public service.

- Graduates of the Bachelor of Business (Accountancy) can expect to find employment in public practice, industry and commerce or government. In public practice the main areas of specialisation are auditing, financial analysis, corporate secretarial functions, costing, taxation, receivership, bankruptcy, trusteeship or management services. In industry and commerce, accountancy graduates are employed in management positions.

- Graduates of the Banking and Finance major find employment in the banking area of finance which can involve retail, wholesale or international projects, the funding of operations and investment of funds in loans or liquidity.

- Graduates with Economics training are highly sought after. They are employed as economists and in a wide variety of related professional areas.

- Graduates of the Marketing major find employment in industry and government in roles including marketing and research, sales management and product development and management. They are also employed as marketing managers and consultants in the national and international business environments.

Professional Recognition

The Bachelor of Business degree may, subject to choice of major, extended major, or specialisation, allow graduates to satisfy the academic requirements for membership as follows:

*All majors: Chartered Secretaries Australia (CSA) - enrolment in the Graduate Diploma in Applied Corporate Governance.

*Accountancy: CPA Australia (associate membership & enrolment in the CPA Program), Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (ICAA)(enrolment in the CA Program).

*Banking and Finance: Australasian Institute of Banking and Finance (AIBF).

*Economics: Economic Society of Australia (Queensland Division).

*Marketing: Australian Marketing Institute, Market Research Society of Australia, Australian Institute of Management, Australian Institute of Export (Qld) Ltd, American Marketing Association.

Course Design

Students are required to complete 432 credit points comprised of 192 credit points from the Bachelor of Arts program and 240 credit points from the Bachelor of Business program.

BA Course Requirements - Commencing Students

BA Course Requirements (Years 1-4)

Students are required to complete:

* One Multidisciplinary Professional Major (1 core unit + 6 units in the major)

It is suggested that they complete the Core Units Program consisting of the following:

* Two core units in first semester (from a selection of core introductory and core skills units)

(Note: one of the core introductory units will sit within the chosen Interdisciplinary Professional Major.

* Year 2: research methods unit. Students are advised to take at least two of these units.

Students must maintain a minimum of 50% enrolment in units from the BA program until they have completed eight of these units (96 credit points).

Students may wish to:

- develop a Minor (48 credit points) in one of the interdisciplinary professional areas
- develop a Minor (48 credit points) in a disciplinary study sequence or in another QUT course
- take a series of elective units.

Students wishing to complete a full discipline studies sequence (6 units) will need to amend their core units program.

Students planning to complete a full Language sequence (6 units) will need to discuss their program with the relevant Course Coordinator in order to ensure that they begin their Language studies in first semester and that their language units can be continued into their third year.

NB: Students are required to complete 16 units in the BA component of the double degree. Of these 12 must be BA units i.e. HHB coded units.

Multidisciplinary Professional Majors

For details, refer to the Bachelor of Arts Degree (HH01).

Discipline Majors

For details, refer to the Bachelor of Arts Degree (HH01).

Minor Sequences

For details, refer to the Co-Majors entry in the Bachelor of Arts (HH01) entry as any of these are available to be taken as Minors.

Key Terms - BA

*Multidisciplinary Professional Major - one of five interdisciplinary study sequences in the BA degree (International and Global Studies, Society and Change, Ethics and Human Rights, Community Studies, Australian Studies), consisting of one core unit plus six further units from the appropriate list (making a total of 84 credit points). Students must complete at least one of these to fulfil the requirements of the degree. NB - a unit may not be counted in more than one multidisciplinary professional major, discipline major or minor.

* Discipline Major - a set of six units (72 credit points) in a given discipline (Geography, History, Languages, Social Science). In Languages, this consists of six sequenced units in one Language. In other disciplines the six units must include one introductory unit to the discipline.

*Minor Study Sequence - a study sequence of any four units (48 credit points) in a given subject area. NB - a unit may not be counted in more than one minor.

* Elective Units - units selected by students to fit into their study program.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience. Further information is available at www.deferment.qut.edu.au.

Overview

Doctoral studies in the School of Humanities and Human Services are through the Centre for Social Change Research and focus on issues of real-world significance. These issues can have broad social ramifications or be important problems that are central to the professions with which the School and the Centre are aligned.

Entry requirements

Applicants must have:

. a relevant first- or second-class Division A (upper division) honours degree; or

. an appropriate research masters degree or a coursework masters with a significant research component.

Course Structure

Doctoral studies may be completed in any area of research interest supported by the Centre for Social Change Research. The Centre Director and other staff are happy to discuss these or any related areas with applicants. Candidates may study full- or part-time. If candidates are full-time and hold an appropriate masters degree, they can submit their thesis or other examinable work after 24 months (36 months for a part-time student). If candidates do not hold a masters degree the period is 30 months for a full-time candidate or 42 months for a part-time candidate.

The research may be completed either by thesis or by publication.

NOTE

RESTRICTED INTAKE IN 2003.

The Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood) IF81 course has been replaced by a newly coded Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood) IX11 course with effect from 2003. There will be no new intake into this course in 2003 with the exception of students commencing their studies with significant advanced standing from previous tertiary level study.

Entry requirements

Applicants must have completed Year 12 (or equivalent). Assumed Knowledge: English (4 SA).

Career Outcomes

The Arts component provides an excellent general education for future early childhood specialists. The Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood) provides graduates with the opportunity to be employed in child care centres, kindergartens, preschools and the lower three grades of primary school. Opportunities in tourism, translation, and the hospitality industry are open to those with language studies.

Professional Recognition

This double degree is recognised by the Queensland Board of Teacher Registration as meeting the requirements for registration as a teacher in Queensland. Applicants for teacher registration in Queensland are subject to national criminal history checks. The Early Childhood specialisation is also accredited by the Department of Families, Youth and Community Care Services for employment in the area of child care.

Course Structure - Continuing Students

BA Course Structure and Requirements

Students are required to complete at least one of the five interdisciplinary professional majors (1 core introductory unit plus 6 units in the major):
International and Global Studies
Society and Change
Ethics and Human Rights
Community Studies
Australian Studies

It is recommended that students take HHB116 Applied Skills and Scholarship in their first year.

Students are required to maintain a minimum fifty percent enrolment in units from the BA program until they have completed eight of those units.

In their remaining units, students may:

- develop a Major or Minor (48 credit points) in another of the interdisciplinary professional areas;
- develop a Major or Minor (48 credit points) in a disciplinary major or in another QUT course;
- develop of Minor (48 credit points) in Foundation units for Early Childhood;
- take a series of elective units.

Students are required to complete 16 units in the BA component of the double degree. Of these, 12 must be BA units (ie HHB coded units).

Course Structure - Commencing Students

BA Course Requirements (Years 1 and 2)

Students are REQUIRED to complete:

- * One Interdisciplinary Professional Major (1 core introductory unit + 6 units in the major)

It is SUGGESTED that they complete the Core Units Program consisting of the following:

- * Four core units in first semester (from a selection of core introductory units and core skills units)

(Note: one of the core introductory units will sit within the chosen Interdisciplinary Professional Major)

- * Two core units in second year (2 research methods units)

Students planning to complete a full language sequence (6 units) will need to discuss their program with the relevant Course Coordinator to ensure that their language studies begin in semester one and continue into their third year. Students wishing to complete a Workplace Internship will need to discuss their program with the relevant Course Coordinator in order to ensure that the Internship can be located in their third year.

NB Students are required to complete 16 units in the BA component of the double degree. Of these 12 must be BA units i.e. HHB coded units.

Key Terms in the BA - Commencing Students

* Professional Major - one of five interdisciplinary study sequences in the BA degree (International & Global Studies, Society and Change, Ethics and Human Rights, Community Studies, Australian Studies), consisting of one core unit plus six further units from the appropriate list (making a total of 84 credit points). Students must complete at least one of these to fulfil the requirements of the degree.

NB - a unit may not be counted in more than one professional major, discipline sequence, or Minor.

* Discipline Sequence - a set of six units (72 credit points) in a given discipline (Geography, History, Languages, Social Science). In Languages, this consists of six sequenced units in one Language. In other disciplines the six units must include one introductory unit to the discipline.

* Minor Study Sequence - a study sequence of any four units (48 credit points) in a given subject area.

Course Structure - Continuing Students

BA Course Requirements (Years 1 and 2) (Continuing Students)

Students should have completed the following components of the degree:

The first year requirements (8 units) which include:

HHB116 Applied Skills and Scholarship

Two Foundation Units (for students who did not complete two Faculty Foundation Units in Year 1)

Two to three Course Foundation Units

Two to three Elective Units

NB a minimum of four of these eight units must be chosen from units offered from the BA component of your course.

In second year, a further 8 units to complete:

One Major Study Sequence chosen from the BA component of your course

AND

One Minor Study Sequence from those offered in the BA component of your course or from other Minor Study Sequences offered elsewhere within QUT.

Students must ensure that a minimum of 12 of the 16 units be chosen from units in the BA.

Course Structure - Commencing Students

BA Course Requirements (Years 1 and 2)(Commencing Students)

Students are REQUIRED to complete:

* One Interdisciplinary Professional Major (1 core introductory unit + 6 units in the major)

It is SUGGESTED that they complete the Core Units Program consisting of the following:

*Four core units in first semester (from a selection of core introductory units and core skills units)

(Note: one of the core introductory units will sit within the chosen Interdisciplinary Professional Major)

* Two core units in second year (2 research methods units)

NB One of core introductory units will sit within the chosen Interdisciplinary Major.

Students must maintain a 50% enrolment in units from the BA program until they have completed 8 of those units (96 credit points).

Students may wish to

- develop a Minor (48 credit points) in one of the interdisciplinary professional areas

- develop a Minor (48 credit points) in a disciplinary study sequence or in another QUT course

- develop a Minor (48 credit points) in major Foundation units for Primary Teachings

- take a series of elective units

Students wishing to complete a full discipline studies sequence (6 units) will need to amend their core units program.

Students planning to complete a full language sequence (6 units) will need to discuss their program with the relevant Course Coordinator to ensure that their language studies begin in semester one and continue into their third year.

NB Students are required to complete 16 units in the BA component of the double degree. Of these 12 must be BA units i.e. HHB coded units.

Key Terms in the BA - Commencing Students

* Professional Major - one of five interdisciplinary study sequences in the BA degree (International & Global Studies, Society and Change, Ethics and Human Rights, Community Studies, Australian Studies), consisting of one core unit plus six further units from the appropriate list (making a total of 84 credit points). Students must complete at least one of these to fulfil the requirements of the degree.

NB - a unit may not be counted in more than one professional major, discipline sequence, or Minor.

* Discipline Sequence - a set of six units (72 credit points) in a given discipline (Geography, History, Languages, Social Science). In Languages, this consists of six sequenced units in one Language. In other disciplines the six units must include one introductory unit to the discipline.

* Minor Study Sequence - a study sequence of any four units (48 credit points) in a given subject area.

Interdisciplinary Professional Majors - Commencing Students

For details, refer to the Bachelor of Arts (HH01) entry in the Humanities and Human Services section.

Discipline Sequences - Commencing Students

For details, refer to the Bachelor of Arts (HH01) entry in the Humanities and Human Services section.

Minor Sequences - Commencing Students

For details, refer to the Co-Majors section of the Bachelor of Arts (HH01) entry in the Humanities and Human Services section as any of these may be taken as Minors.

Career Opportunities

As a graduate of this course you will receive both a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Bachelor of Applied Science degree. This combination of degrees provides a valuable foundation for a wide range of careers in areas such as government, diplomacy, higher education and public service. Opportunities in tourism, translation, and the hospitality industry are open to those with a Language major. Complementary majors chosen from Arts and Science provide an excellent background for careers in environmental management.

Recommended study

At least one of the sciences. For the majors in biochemistry, biotechnology, forensic science and microbiology - Biological Science and Chemistry are recommended; for the major in physics - Maths C is recommended.

Course Design

A feature of the course design is the flexibility and choice it offers. Students can tailor the double degree to their career interests by combining any one of the 10 majors that are available in the Bachelor of Applied Science (SC01) degree with a specialisation chosen from a wide range of offerings in the humanities.

The program is integrated so that students will study both science and arts units in each semester.

Professional Recognition

Relevant professional bodies for the Bachelor of Applied Science (SC01) are listed under the separate entry for the course. Eligibility for membership depends on the majors undertaken.

Career Outcomes

During the Arts component you will specialise in two teaching areas relevant to the secondary school curriculum. The Education component prepares you to teach both areas across years 8 to 12.

Professional Recognition

Graduates are eligible for registration as teachers in Queensland through the Queensland College of Teachers. Graduates looking for employment in other parts of Australia and overseas may be required to meet additional conditions.

Working With Children Check

Working With Children Check - As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), student teachers must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card. immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Computing Requirement

The increased and more creative use of online teaching technology in this degree requires that you have access to suitable computer facilities with a minimum equivalent of a Pentium 3 processor, 56k modem and internet access.

Career Outcomes

The Arts component provides an excellent general education for future early childhood specialists. The Bachelor of Education (Early Childhood) provides graduates with the opportunity to be employed in childcare centres, kindergartens, prep year and the lower three grades of primary school.

Professional Recognition

Graduates are eligible for registration as teachers in Queensland through the Queensland College of Teachers. The Early Childhood specialisation is also accredited by the Department of Child Safety for employment in the area of child care. Graduates looking for employment in other parts of Australia and overseas may be required to meet additional conditions.

Working With Children Check

Working With Children Check - As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), student teachers must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card, immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, portfolios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Computing Requirement

The increased and more creative use of online teaching technology in this degree requires that you have access to suitable computer facilities with a minimum equivalent of a Pentium 3 processor, 56k modem and internet access.

BA Course Requirements - Commencing Students

Students are required to completed at least one of the five multidisciplinary majors (1 core introductory unit plus 6 units in the major). You will choose from International and Global Studies, Society and Change, Ethics and Human Rights, Community Studies and Australian Studies.

The degree has a core program which consists of the following:

- 1) First Year: core introductory units for the multidisciplinary majors plus core skills units;
- 2) Second Year: research methods.

As well as the multidisciplinary major, students may also wish to undertake a Discipline Major in one of the following: History, Geography and Environmental Studies, Languages (French, Indonesian, German, Japanese, or Mandarin), Sociology or Political Studies.

Students must maintain a minimum of 50% enrolment in units from the BA program until they have completed eight of these units (96 credit points).

Students may also wish to include:

- an Arts minor/s in any of the multidisciplinary or discipline majors (4 units)
- an approved university minor, or individual electives in another QUT course (up to 4 units)

Students planning to complete a full Language sequence (6 units) will need to discuss their program with the relevant Course Coordinator in order to ensure that they begin their Language studies in first semester and that their language units can be continued into their third year.

NB: Students are required to complete 16 units in the BA component of the double degree. Of these 12 must be BA units i.e. HHB coded units.

Deferral

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, portfolios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Working with Children Check

Working With Children Check

As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), students must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Domestic student tuition fee (Dfee) places

Undergraduate domestic full fee places (Dfee) are available in this course.

Course Description

In this course students complete the requirements of two separate degrees in four years. The Human Services component of the course provides knowledge, values, ethics and skills for professional practice in human services. The Justice component involves the study of criminology, ethics, crime prevention, policy making and investigations.

Career opportunities

Career opportunities include human service worker, aged, child and family, youth, disability and corrective services; community development; social care; child protection; youth justice; policy and service development; prevention and early intervention services; individual and systems advocacy; criminology; policing; ethics; crime prevention; justice policy and investigations.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Working with Children Check

As required by the Commission for Children and Young People and Child Guardian Act (2000), students must undergo a criminal history check and be issued with a Suitability Card (Blue Card) by the Commission.

As soon as you enter your enrolment program for the course, you must submit your Blue Card application to the QUT Student Centre immediately. You must hold a Blue Card to undertake activities in any unit which involves contact with children, including the required field studies blocks.

If you do not apply for a Blue Card immediately upon enrolment in the course and allow sufficient time for the police check and issuing of the Card, you will be unable to participate in the required activities and may need to be withdrawn from the unit(s) and incur both financial and academic penalty. It may take up to 8 weeks for the Commission to issue the Card. The application form is available at bluecard.qut.com.

Course description

In this course students complete the requirements of two separate degrees in Arts and Information Technology in four years. The focus of the arts component is social change with an emphasis on understanding societies and the impact of global, social, environmental and technological change on communities and individuals. In the IT component, there is a strong practical component with computing laboratory based units and project work comprising a significant part of the course,

Majors in the Arts component

In the Bachelor of Arts, students choose an multidisciplinary major from one of the following: international and global studies, society and change, ethics and human rights, community studies, or Australian studies.

Majors in the IT component

In the Bachelor of Information Technology, students can choose to major in business systems engineering, data bases, electronic business, games technology, information and knowledge management, information systems, IT management, intelligent systems, interactive media, network systems, security, software architecture, or web services and applications.

Deferment

QUT allows current Year 12 school leavers to defer their undergraduate admission offer for one year, or for six months if offered mid-year admission, except in courses using specific admission requirements such as questionnaires, folios, auditions, prior study or work experience.

Non-year 12 students may also request to defer their QTAC offer on the basis of demonstrated special circumstances.

Find out more on deferment.

Career outcomes

Information technology professionals with a strong knowledge in languages, as well as deep understanding in areas such as international issues—particularly cultures, ethics and human rights—are highly valued by the information technology industry. The Arts component also provides students with a broad-based education and a range of transferable analytical, research and communication skills which will enrich studies in information technology and expand career choices.

Entry Requirements - Academic

Students must have met the academic entry requirements for their proposed postgraduate or undergraduate course.

Entry Requirements- English Language

IELTS 6.0 with no sub-score less than 5.0 or TOEFL 550 (paper) or TOEFL 213 (CBT) or equivalent, or successful completion of the EAP program (N.B. Students should also check visa requirements).

Description

This program provides two alternative streams. Stream A is designed for students who have not met English and/or prerequisite requirements for their chosen undergraduate or postgraduate course. Most students may undertake one degree unit (for credit) whilst enrolled in a Bridging program. Those with advanced standing may be able to undertake two degree units. Stream B is for students who have met English requirements but not prerequisite requirement for their degree, or who may wish to improve the standard of their academic English. These students may take one or two degree units (for credit) whilst enrolled in the Bridging Program. Both streams include intensive preparation for academic language, lateral thinking, research and presentation skills required for successful tertiary study. Small classes and dedicated staff ensure an excellent learning environment. Additional support is provided by Language and Welfare Advisers.

Course Completion

Students undertaking three Bridging units must obtain at least a grade of 4 (Pass) in two units and a grade of 3 (Low Pass) in the remaining unit.

Students undertaking two Bridging units must obtain at least a grade of 4 (Pass) in one unit and a grade of 3 (Low Pass) in the remaining unit.

Progression

In order to progress to an award course, students must:

- i) fulfil the Bridging course requirements
- ii) gain a minimum grade of 4 (Pass) in Communication 2 or an IELTS 6.5 or equivalent,
- iii) meet any other conditions detailed in the 'letter of offer' from International Student Business Services.

Entry Requirements - Academic

To be eligible for entry, applicants must either:

1. Have an offer of a place in a QUT degree program and successfully complete the relevant EAP entry test; or
2. Produce original documentary evidence of an IELTS score of a minimum 5.5 with no sub-score less than 5.0 (or approved equivalent).

* You should check the English language requirements for a Student Visa from your country of origin.

Description

The aim of the EAP course is to assist international students to upgrade their English proficiency level to meet university entry requirements. The course is designed to prepare students for independent study and to familiarise them with an Australian academic setting in terms of study techniques and student/lecturer relations and expectations.

Course Completion

To be eligible to receive EAP certification at the end of the course, students must complete all course requirements.

On successful completion of the course, students will receive a Completion & Attendance Certificate and a Statement of Results.

Progression

Successful completion of an EAP course is a pathway into QUT International College Foundation, Diploma, Certificate or Bridging programs; or QUT undergraduate or postgraduate award programs. The course is recognised by all QUT faculties.
