Your Advantage

QUTeX Professional Advantage is an exclusive package designed to put you in charge of the professional development needs of your organisation.

Consisting of a corporate subscription to QUTeX Professional Programs, package holders benefit from a generous discount off the standard program registration rate, and the flexibility to choose how and when package seats are allocated throughout the year.

Other benefits include:

You can create your own corporate course investment plan and shape it to fit the schedule of your team, and your specific organisational or team requirements. Course content is constantly evolving as QUTeX responds to market trends to keep course and program content fresh and relevant.

You can also set your team up for leadership success with access to the Enterprise Leadership Program (ELP), which pathways into a Graduate Certificate in Business. The ELP modules will develop your employee's knowledge and leadership skills across a number of core learning areas that are tailored to complex public and private sector environments.

Sample courses:

Enabling Transformation Through Innovation	Successful Speechwriting	Financial Literacy
Ethical Decision Making	The Psychology of Negotiation	Leadership in the Digital Age
Leadership, Coaching and Culture	Making Decisions with Data	Managing Stakeholder Relationships

An organisation-wide learning solution

Package inclusions:

50 - 100

50 or 100 learning days which can be used to attend Professional Programs and/or the Enterprise Leadership Program (ELP)*, over a 12-month period.

A QUTeX one hour keynote presentation for your audience on a topic of your selection from our suite.

A corporate portal to simplify the registration process.

Quarterly corporate reporting on attendance and outcomes.

Exclusive access to the QUTeX Learning Network for your senior HR leaders.

An ELP Module is the equivalent of 2.5 learning days (two days face-to-face, plus online learning)*
