4. Educational qualifications

Please provide details of all post-secondary studies you have attempted or completed. You must attach copies of your full official academic record for all non-QUT studies; ie it must list all studies undertaken at each previous institution. Include English translations where necessary.

If you have undertaken studies at an Australian public university (including predecessor institutions) as well as Bond University or at the Australian Catholic University, and you do not have a copy of your current academic record, QUT may be able to obtain it directly from your former institution as long as your studies are from 1990 or later and you have no encumbrances (sanctions, suspensions etc) that are blocking results from your prior institution. QUT will contact you to provide your transcript if we are not able to obtain it. Please note that award certificates and Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement (AHEGS) are acceptable if you are seeking entry to a course that does not have a GPA entry requirement.
