

Invest in the law professionals of the future

Sponsor a QUT Law student prize or scholarship

QUT Law offers a range of scholarships and prizes to domestic and international students that recognise high academic excellence during their academic year, as well as provide support in cases of financial hardship or educational disadvantage.

Sponsored by corporate partners and philanthropic donors, these awards are a great way for organisations and individuals to impact the future of QUT law students, while gaining access to the next generation of law professionals. Student award recipients value and benefit from the recognition, as well as the opportunity to engage with industry.

How can you or your business benefit from sponsorship?

- Recognise and reward outstanding student excellence and achievement.
- Invest in the future of law professionals.
- Build awareness about your organisation within the student body.
- Engage with the student award recipient.
- Gain early access to high-calibre students.
- Get involved in sponsored teaching opportunities.
- Develop a partnership with QUT Law.
- Attend the annual Student Awards Ceremony.
- Receive invitations to special events and networking opportunities.

Alternatively, we can tailor something that suits your needs. Prizes and scholarships can be provided in the form of cash and/or non-cash awards (including professional memberships, conference attendance, vouchers, etc).
