

2020 BMD CIVIL ENGINEERING SCHOLARSHIP

Terms and Conditions

The following terms and conditions apply to this Scholarship:

The purpose of the BMD Civil Engineering Scholarship is to help support a full-time student undertaking their third and fourth years of the following degrees at Queensland university of Technology:

- EN01- Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)
 - SE40 – Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)/Bachelor of Mathematics
 - SE80 – Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)/Bachelor of Science.
 - SE60 - Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)/Bachelor of Information Technology
 - ID14 – Bachelor of Design/ Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)
 - IS19 – Bachelor of Design (Architecture)/ Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)
 - IX59 – Bachelor of Business/ Bachelor of Engineering (Honours)(Civil)
1. The Scholarship is tenable for up to two years and is subject to the recipient remaining enrolled full-time in the degree. The recipient will also need to maintain a minimum GPA of 4.5 in any required coursework, with minimum pass grades to successfully complete the degree.
 2. The Scholarship is provided principally for educational purposes.
 3. The value of the Scholarship is $5,000 per annum and will be paid as a study stipend in four equal instalments. The Scholarship will be paid after census date of Semester 1 and Semester 2 in 2020 and again following confirmation of enrolment after census date of Semester 1 and Semester 2 in 2021 (if a minimum GPA of 4.5 is maintained).
 4. The Scholarship recipient will be required to update BMD on their progress in the course at least once a year during the tenure of the Scholarship (this may be via a letter or in person).
 5. The Scholarship recipient will be encouraged to commit to six weeks of paid vacation work annually. This will generally be offered during November, December and January of each calendar year. However, this work experience is not a condition of the Scholarship and will be facilitated and paid by the Sponsor independently of the Scholarship.
 6. Paid employment of any nature, with any employer, undertaken by the recipient must not interfere with the student's study program. The University reserves the right to terminate the award if progress - as a result of additional paid work being undertaken - is not satisfactory.
 7. The recipient is not required to become (or continue to be), as a condition of the Scholarship, an employee or render any service to the University, either during the tenure of the Scholarship or upon its completion.
 8. You are encouraged to make your own enquiries about the effect of such a Scholarship on your tax obligations or any government benefits you are currently receiving or may apply for in the future. Although QUT does not take any tax off the Scholarship amount, QUT is not authorised to deem this Scholarship tax exempt. Ultimate determination regarding the tax status of the Scholarship will be made by the Australian Taxation Office. Please retain this statement with your tax documentation. Additional tax information can be obtained at www.ato.gov.au/individuals or telephone the Australian Taxation Office on 13 28 61.
