Funding

The Scholarships are funded by the National Centre for Econometric Research and the School of Economics and Finance, QUT.

Term of scholarship

The duration of the scholarship will not be longer than the period required for completing the relevant course of study. As this award is for Honours, the term of the scholarship will be for two semesters – full time – 48 credit points per semester. No extensions of the scholarship will be granted.

Conditions of scholarship

1. The purpose of the scholarship is to support a full-time candidate to undertake an Honours degree within the School of Economics and Finance, QUT Business School, Queensland University of Technology.
2. The scholarship is tenable for up to two semesters and is renewable after the first semester, subject to the recipient's progress being deemed satisfactory and/or the recipient maintaining a minimum GPA of 6 in the required coursework units.
3. Withdrawing after census date will incur liability for the tuition fees of the enrolled units, and repayment of the scholarship within 30 days will be required.
4. The payment of the scholarship will be after census date in each semester.
5. As the scholarship is for full-time study, it is expected that the recipient will commit no less than 30 hours per week, averaged over the year of the candidacy, to the study being supported and maintain enrolment in 48 credit points of study.
6. Approval to undertake paid employment must be obtained through the Head of School, on the advice of the principal supervisor. Paid employment must not interfere with the award holder's study program, and QUT reserves the right to terminate the scholarship of any recipient whose progress, as a result of additional paid work being undertaken, is not satisfactory.
7. QUT shall not require a scholarship holder to render any service to the University, either during the tenure of the scholarship or upon its completion, as a condition of the receipt of the scholarship.
8. Students who are recipients of other scholarships are not eligible for these Honours scholarships.

Tax exemption

Awards funded by QUT's Faculties, Schools/Centres which comply with the Australian Taxation Office conditions are tax exempt. It is the student's responsibility to check the taxation legislation available at www.ato.gov.au.
